Precinct Three Polling Place

The Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium, old Crystal Ballroom, former Raytheon offices, or whatever one chooses to call the Haverhill street building at the corner of Argyle street, will be the new voting location for voters in Precinct three.

The former location, Sacred Heart school, will not be in use due to its expansion program and the Cardinal Cushing gym has replaced it as the polling place beginning with Tuesday's election.

Primary Election Tuesday

A Congressional race in which a local man is seeking nomination on the Republican ballot will highlight the state primary election Tuesday in Andover.

Paul W. Cronin, former selectman and state representative is seeking the nomination in a four way race which will result in the victor facing a Democrat opponent in November for the vacancy created by the appointment of Congressman F. Bradford Morse to the United Nations.

The contest is one of several on the ballot and for which 13,224 Andover voters will be eligible to cast ballots Tuesday.

Town Clerk Elden R. Salter reports that all six precincts will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. and that voting will be by

Editorial Comment

The Primary

Selection of party candidates for state county and national office will be accomplished on Tuesday in the Massachusetts Primary election.

The primary is an important and integral part of the democratic process and demands the attention of all.

Candidates for various offices have put forth their platforms and thoughts for the voters consideration.

Due to the abundance of contests, this has been one of the most active primaries in recent years.

It is, therefore, incumbent upon every voter to perform his duty next Tuesday in order that the best candidates are offered for selection in the November election.

One of the consistent deterrents to participation in the primary election process, is the necessity to declare oneself.

This, however, should not be a drawback, since it is a simple matter to return to an undeclared status by so informing the town clerk anytime after election day.

The League of Women Voters is supplying cards at the polling places to facilitate the return to being an undeclared voter.

The election on Tuesday is a most important part of this election year.

It is imperative that a major turnout be recorded and we strongly urge your participation in the electoral process on Tuesday.

Co-Education And Phillips Academy Will Be Synonymous

COMBINING Andover's two academies into a single co-educational institution is accomplished here through the deft hand of Photographer David Skelly. Officials of the two schools are finding the proposed merged facilities a little more difficult to accomplish, but it would appear the Phillips Academy will be co-ed in 1973.

Industrial Region Development Looms

The selectmen have informed a prospective industrial client that the town is prepared to proceed with orderly development of utilities in the West Andover area.

The board has been informed of a sincere interest on the part of a major, desirable industry to locate in West Andover.

According to a town meeting vote in 1968, money is available for installation of sewer and water lines, if justified by appropriate industrial development.

The selectmen have responded to the industrial clients by stating that the town would move ahead with development plans, if the industry expressed an interest in locating here and put forth positive planning measures.

The board also stated it would go back to the town at a town meeting to obtain additional funds if necessary.

It would appear that additional funds would be required, since in 1968 the town appropriated $1,581,000 for the project and it is felt the costs would be higher now.

Industrial development representatives who have appeared before the selectmen have indicated that Andover is a prime choice of a prominent firm.

The West Andover industrial area, more popularly referred to as the Shattuck farm property off Route 93, is held by Arkwright Insurance Co. of Boston, a prime industrial developer.

As in most cases concerning prospective industrial development, information is kept confidential until such time as firm

Abbot Academy -- its entire student body and faculty, real estate and holdings, -- will be combined into Phillips Academy to form a single coeducational school at Phillips Academy by next September, if the trustees of both schools buy a proposal signed by the two headmasters.

The single coed school on Andover Hill would have a combined student body of approximately 1250 the first year, roughly one quarter girls, but its total size would shrink over the next several years for economic and educational reasons.

The trustees' decisions may come within the next few days, at special meetings of the Abbot and PA trustees Friday and Saturday, to hear the proposal of Theodore Sizer, new PA headmaster, and Donald Gordon, Abbot's headmaster for the past four years. But negotiations might stretch out to the regular fall trustee meetings six weeks away, an Abbot official indicated.

At any rate, nearly four years consideration of coeducation have passed at Phillips Academy. Trustees, faculty and alumni council have publicly committed themselves to the principle of

A Feminine Touch For The FinCom

The Finance Committee has its first female member with the appointment this week of Mrs. R. Milton Cole to the board, along with Atty. John C. Doherty.

Mrs. Cole long active in municipal affairs was appointed by Moderator Arthur Williams this week and was in attendance at her first meeting Monday night, along with Atty. Doherty who this past week was also appointed an assistant district attorney.

Mrs. Cole and Atty. Doherty replace Richard McGowan and Arthur Helfetz, whose terms expired.

School Census To Begin

According to state law (Chapter 70, Section 5, and Chapter 72, Sections 2 and 2A) every superintendent of schools shall file annually with the Commissioner of Education a report of the number of minor children whose parents or guardians are residents of the town, and who were enrolled on October first in the following schools: public, private, vocational and regional - kindergarten through grade twelve. Children attending other than local schools are also included.

In order to complete this report, a census of all school age children will begin around the middle of September. At the same time, a pre-school census will be taken to be used as a guide to school authorities.

This census will be under the direction of the Andover Public Schools. Census takers for each precinct are as follows:

Precinct 1, Mrs. Katherine Bozzi, 78 Princeton Ave.; Precinct 2, Mrs. Katherine Burns, 56 Wildwood Road; Precinct 3, Mrs. Irene Need, 13 Glenmeadow Road; Precinct 4, Mrs. Constance Denoncourt, 11 Marion Ave.; Mrs. Judith Kirkland, 33 Washington Ave.; Precinct 5, Mrs. Ann Dowrick, 11 Prospect Road; Precinct 6, Mrs. Rose White, 27 Bartlet St.; Mrs. Judith Sleath, 60 Burnham Road.

Joyce Williams, Andover High School student, is shown looking over the selection of paperbacks.

To Outline Chamber Program

A special President's Orientation session of the Andover

Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight at the Andover Inn beginning at 5 p.m. with a social hour.

Chamber President Robin Neill plans to welcome new committee chairmen and to outline the challenges and goals facing the chamber in the coming year.

Neill, who assumed the presidency in June, has planned an ambitious program for the Andover organization aimed at assisting the town and working with town officials.

At tonight's session, members of the board of selectmen and the town manager have been invited.

Neill feels that working together with the municipal government leaders is an integral part of the chamber's activities in the development of an overall program for the business and professional people of the community.

Following the social hour, the chamber will have a working session from 5:45 to 6:45 during which the program will be discussed.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m.

Reilly To Speak At St. Robert's

Joseph Reilly, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Catholic Conference and representative of the Bishops of Massachusetts will speak at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in West Andover on Thursday, Sept. 14, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Reilly's talk will be geared to the religious education teachers at St. Robert's. Parishioners and the public are also invited.

On hand for the formal opening of the center was Mrs. Francis W. Sargent, wife of the governor.

Motor Development Program Expands

Andover's Physical Education Department has expanded the motor development phase of its program throughout the system. This phase will be called "motor development program" and will be offered as a supplement to the regular physical education classes for those students lacking in motor skills.

The motor development program will include those students who score below average in any of the following areas: balance, coordination, special awareness, rhythms, and fitness.

These students, when possible, will be given additional time, encouragement, and individual attention that may not be possible within the regular physical education class.

Mrs. Daryl Arsenault, motor development specialist, will work with physical education teachers and students in all the elementary schools in this area. The basic goals of the program are:

1. To determine, through our testing program, those students who are of low motor development, underweight, overweight, and generally below fitness average, and to give them the additional attention they deserve.

2. To improve the performance of the student as determined by the testing program.

3. To improve the self-confidence of the student by giving him increased opportunities to be successful in not only his strong areas, but specifically in those areas that are lacking.

Parents will be informed, throughout the school year, of their child's progress through report cards, letters, and personal conferences. Parents who are interested in the program and would like to know more about it, may contact their child's physical education teacher, Mrs. Daryl Arsenault, or Mr. Richard Swift.

Some people say all this talk about a power shortage is a lot of rubbish.

They're right. Because, without enough electricity, a lot of the things that make a mess of our lives would be piling up on us at the rate of 3.5 million tons a year. It takes a lot of energy just to clean up after ourselves.

Take the recycling of waste materials. Discarded cans, papers, bottles, old automobiles — in fact, most of the refuse that fills our trash barrels and litters our landscape — can be converted to useful ends by electric energy.

We will also be using more and more electric power to purify the water we drink and to clean the air we breathe.

That's why we're working now to provide the kind of facilities it will take to not only clean up the world we live in but to keep it that way. Remember, it's as important to us as it is to you... because we live here, too.

People like you working to make life a little better.

paign has concluded its general solicitation for funds to build a facility to serve the men, women, boys and girls of Andover and North Andover. To date $1,060,000.00 of the $1,500,000.00 goal has been raised.

In 1967 the Andover Youth Center became the Andover Branch of the Greater Lawrence YMCA and its membership has grown from 1,033 to almost 4,000 members. The present structure on Brook Street, Andover cannot meet the needs projected by this phenomenal growth.

Only through the generosity of Phillips Academy has the "Y" been able to offer a well rounded program including swimming, tennis, skating and others. This year the Andover YMCA will be operating the North Andover Community Center and this will add several hundred more to its membership rolls making a new facility even more necessary.

Robert Henderson, president of the Andover Savings Bank, served as General Chairman of the Fund Raising Campaign and Atty. Reno J. Orlando of North Andover served as Vice Chairman. They also headed up the all important Advance Gifts Committee. The Special Gifts Division was chaired by Ronald Guittar a member of the Andover YMCA Board of Directors. Section Chairmen were: Robert Phinney, Paul McVey, Rev. Charles Shields, William Doyle, Patrick Rogers, Robert Nazarian, Robert Webster, Donald Jacobsen and Robert Gupitil.

Three General Campaign efforts were run which involved over 400 workers. Douglas N. Howe served as General Chairman of the first combined Andover - North Andover effort. Anthony DiDio chaired the second Andover thrust and Richard Rochon the North Andover effort.

Many people have given much time to make the Branch "Y" a "force for service" to the two communities, but none any more than the Campaign Executive Committee. The members are: Phillip K. Allen, Edward B. Eruce, Joseph L. Daly, Walter V. Demers, Jr., Timothy P. Horne, V. Donald Jacobsen, Milton J. Meyers, D.M.D., Mrs. Arthur F. Muldoon, Horace N. Stevens, Jr., C. B. Swanson, Robert A. Watters and Dean Webster.

Walter N. Webster, Chairman of the Building Committee is working closely with Architect Archie Maclaren. Borings and site development plans are now being made with an effort being made to develop the area in such a way as to make full use of its many trees and a natural flowing stream in an effort to give the building beautiful surroundings. It is hoped the construction plans will be ready for contractors bids by October.

As extensive as the Finance Campaign was, it failed to reach all the people of Andover and North Andover. So anyone not contacted and interested in helping the "Y" build the kind of facility that is needed, please contact the Andover "Y" on Brook Street, Andover.

The YMCA and the people of Andover and North Andover continue to "Work Together To Build A Better Tomorrow."

Community School Sets Program

The Andover Recreation - Community School program has scheduled a program to run 10 weeks in the Fall of 1972. All classes and programs will be offered through the Andover School facilities.

The scheduling of the activities in the neighborhood schools is basic to the concept of Community Schools. Registration blanks have been sent by mail to Andover residents. Additional information or registration forms may be obtained by calling the Recreation Department or by stopping by the office in Town Hall.

Registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

The following classes and programs are being offered. Movie making, an introduction to crafts, oil painting, children's art, water color, basic French cooking, civic workshop, home repairs for men and women, ballet lessons, family gym night, a jogging program, first aid, home nursing, industrial workshop, elementary gymnastics, men's free play basketball, women's basketball and volleyball night, 30 andover basketball league and the SAC program at Andover High School.

Tuition fees are by class. Fees range from free public service to $10. for a class series.

There is an additional charge for non-residents wishing to register.

Phillips Has An Air Of Newness

Phillips Academy opened Monday for its 195th year of classes with a new headmaster, a new dormitory, and a record enrollment of 925 students.

Forty-nine of these are Andover residents, nine from North Andover.

Students were welcomed over the weekend by their new headmaster, Theodore Sizer, former head of the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Sizer will be formally installed Sept. 24 as the successor to John Mason Kemper, who died last December after 23 years at the helm of the famous boys' boarding school. The new Eldridge Stuart dormitory will be dedicated at the same ceremonies.

This 1972-73 year is the third year of classroom coordination with Abbot, amid intensified talk of coeducation, and the first year when all academic courses will be term-contained. The regular academic calendar is divided into three terms, and course offerings have been redesigned over the past two years to fit into a term of approximately 10 weeks, to afford great choice and variety of courses.

This also will be the first year of cluster autonomy, with discipline, counseling services and many other activities outside the classroom centered in each student's cluster - one of six 150-student schools within the academy where the student lives during his Andover stay.

Admissions Director Joshua Miner said that new Phillips Academy students come this year from 45 states and 22 foreign countries, but the following new students enter from our own community:

Christopher Bensley, 141 Main St.; William Boucher, 66 Chestnut St.; Robert Burnham, 20 Sheridan Road; David Cohen, 3 Ivy Lane; Gerald Cox, 20 Haverhill St.; David DeLucia, 30 Holt Road; Mark Diorio, 32 Karlton Circle; Lawrence Dowd, 29 Kathleen Drive; Edward Elmer, 2 Chestnut St.; James Galbiati, 9 Marie Drive; Joseph Goldstein, 43 Oriole Drive; Stephen Robert Kent, 369 Salem St.

Michael Krumpa, 147 Main St.; Mark Liponis, 6 Pinecrest Road; Daniel Lynch, 99 Reservation Road; Timothy Maher, 232 Andover St.; Scott Pascucci, 59 Salem St.; John Peterson, 173 Main St.; Paul Remeis, 39 Lucerne Drive; Neil Rosenberg, 37 Chandler Road; Mark Shonis, 36 Wild Rose Drive; Stephen Slater, 5 College Circle; Leonard Shaker, 7 Lillian Terrace; Kelly Wood, 15 Gleason Road.

In North Andover, Philip Adams, 51 Maple Ave.; Shawn Rockwell and William Rockwell, 676 Osgood St.; John J. Rokous, 79 Johnson St.; and John A. Segal, 118 Sutton Hill Road.

Many Offerings In Evening Program

Catalogues announcing the 37th session of the Andover Evening Study Program have been mailed to thousands of area residents. From September to November weekly courses will be offered to adults on the Phillips Academy campus. This year the 43 scheduled courses again promise that the program will be as stimulating as it has been for many years.

Registration will be open until the first classes begin during the week of Sept. 25. To keep costs within the range of all, the instructors, many of whom are Phillips and Abbot teachers, serve without pay, whether they are teaching Russian or German, acting or ballet, badminton or drownproofing.

Chairman Frank Bellizia, Instructor in English and Theatre at Phillips, indicates that through the facilities of the Andover Evening Study Program, hundreds of people each year have rediscovered old interests, gained new ones, enlarged their outlooks, made new friends, increased their capacity to enjoy fine things, and prepared themselves to meet responsibilities.

The wide variety of courses covers our past and our present, music, art, theatre, literature, religion, science, ideas, athletics, hobbies, and practical information. Perennial favorites available again this year are Creative Problem Solving, Flower Arranging, the Film Series, and Recreational Squash. Also some attractive courses are offered this year for the first time; among them are Law for Laymen, Group Dynamics, Basic Computery, and American Humor.

One of the features of Evening Study in the past has been its public service courses; once again the program will include basic Spanish, offered by the Phillips Spanish department. This course in practical conversation and comprehension has helped nurses, policemen, receptionists, merchants, social workers, and others who find it valuable in their work with the increasing number of Spanish-speaking residents in our area. Other service courses include Boating Safety and Seamanship, First Aid, and Amateur Radio, which leads to the FCC Novice Amateur Radio License.

The Monday classes, meeting from Sept. 25 to Nov. 13, are Law for Laymen; Contemporary American Fiction; Badminton; Organic and Biochemistry;

Amateur Radio; Old Testament; German, which will meet throughout the school year; German Expressionism; Madrigal Singing; Creative Problem Solving; Squash; Archaeology of Ancient Greece.

Tuesday evening's courses will be Introduction to Opera; Interior Decoration, taught by Mrs. Karen Hruby of Andover High School; First Aid; Marine Celestial Navigation; Canadian History; Nature of Philosophy, given by Francis McCarthy, Instructor in English and Philosophy emeritus at Phillips; Acting Workshop; American Humor; World Literature, taught by seven PA instructors; Anthropological Film Classics; Cruising Under Sail.

The Wednesday courses will include Creative Writing; From Bach to Mozart; Introduction to the Pipe Organ; Badminton; Living in Russia Today; Basic

Computery, offered by Richard S. Pieters, chairman of the PA math department; Film Series; Archaeology of Cape Cod; Basic Celestial Navigation; Boating Safety and Seamanship, given by members of the USCG Auxiliary Flotilla 1-303. (American Decorative Arts, announced in the catalogue, will not be given.)

Thursday night's offerings are Flower Arranging; Group Dynamics; Drownproofing; Art History; German; Russian; Transactional Analysis, taught by Rev. J. Allyn Bradford; Ballet, given by Mrs. Cristina Rubio; Spanish; Squash.

Bellizia points out that Evening Study enrollment blanks and catalogues are available at town libraries, or at Phillips Academy. Adults interested in obtaining information should call the Phillips Academy switchboard.

Paul Cronin The Problem Solver

While other people have been talking about problems Cronin has been solving them.

* Unemployment

Paul Cronin convinced the Gillette Company to build its new plant in this area. He also convinced Raytheon Company to construct its new facilities in Andover rather than out of state. The result: literally thousands of jobs saved and new jobs created.

* Property Tax

Paul Cronin has had many of his proposals for county government adopted. If they were all adopted your property tax could be cut in half.

* Senior Citizens With Fixed Incomes

Paul Cronin introduced legislation to assist low-income senior citizens in obtaining better housing financed by the Massachusetts Housing Financing Agency. And he personally introduced half-fare legislation for senior citizens.

* Drug Abuse and Alcoholism

Paul Cronin introduced legislation to establish a state-wide program to control drug abuse, as well as legislation to alleviate the problems of alcoholism.

* The Environment

Paul Cronin submitted legislation on efficient solid waste disposal; and bills to curb oil pollution, provide relief from air pollution and to prohibit the use of DDT. He also filed the "Conservation Bill of Rights" to protect natural resources. This bill will be on the November ballot for ratification by the electorate.

Cronin has the knowledge, training and experience to solve problems. For 11 years as a Selectman, State Representative and Chief Assistant to Congressman Brad Morse, he has done the job. Other people talk about problems, Cronin solves them.

On Sept. 7, the first day of school for West Elementary children, the Parent Teacher's Organization of that school held its first fall meeting. Leo Griffin, president of the organization, conducted the meeting which was attended by almost the full executive board of officers.

Anthony E. Frulla, the West School principal, outlined the goals for the school during 1972-73. The prime objective is to provide personalized learning experiences and individualized instruction for each child, recognizing that each child is a unique learner and must be taught according to his special needs, capacities, abilities, interests and talents.

The Parent Teachers Organization will sponsor a Family Spaghetti Supper on Sept. 27 at the school. There will be "cider and conversation" at 6:30 and supper will be served at 7 p.m. Classrooms will be open so that parents may see for themselves where their children spend their day.

United Fund Sets Goal

$2,235,700 is the target for the second Merrimack Valley United Fund Campaign, it was announced by Cornelius J. McCarthy, General Campaign Chairman.

The goal was set after the Budget Committee, under the chairmanship of Edward A. Lemieux, Manager of Sears - Roebuck and Company, Lowell, and his committee after they had reviewed the requests from the 67 member agencies.

The goal is a 7-1/2 percent increase or $156,000 more than was raised in the first annual campaign conducted last fall.

Chairman McCarthy is optimistic that the goal will be reached as early responses indicate wide acceptance of Fair Share giving, which is the whole basis of the United Fund movement.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO SUPPORTERS OF SEN. McGOVERN IN ANDOVER

DiFruscia

Committee to Elect
Anthony R. DiFruscia to Congress
260 Haverhill Street,
Lawrence, Mass. 01840
617-687-0091

September 14, 1972

Dear Friend,

Before you vote this Tuesday, I hope that you will seriously consider the following letter, and that you will reflect a bit on what real political reform means in 1972.

As you may realize, I was one of the earliest elected officials in the Commonwealth to actively support Sen. George McGovern for President. Here, I felt, was a man of courage, who espoused candor and open-politics above all else.

Following my endorsement of Sen. McGovern in March, I actively campaigned for him...and like to think that I had some part in his April 25th primary victory. And since entering the race for Congressman from the 5th Congressional District, I made open solicitations for support from members of the McGovern delegate slate; most of them, however, stated to me that --- in order to avoid intra-party squabbling among the ten Democratic candidates, several of whom supported Sen. McGovern--- they intended to remain neutral until after the primary next Tuesday.

Having been told this, I'm sure that you will understand how disturbed I was to learn that many supporters of Sen. McGovern are receiving letters--- signed by every member of the 5th District delegate slate but one--- endorsing John Forbes Kerry. In addition, the one delegate who did not sign this letter has told me that his fellow-delegates did not even have the decency to inform him of their actions.

I am deeply disturbed about this turn of events in the last hours of the campaign. And for a very good reason: I feel that the delegates should have endorsed NO CANDIDATE when statements of neutrality had been given. This kind of back room banding-together by politicians in a desperate, last-minute attempt to imply endorsement of John Kerry by Sen. McGovern is exactly the deplorable conduct that we were supposedly fighting.

IS THIS THE "NEW POLITICS" WE ALL SOUGHT IN 1972? ARE WE SUPPOSED TO SIT BACK AND ALLOW A HANDFUL OF PEOPLE TO MAKE A BACK DOOR ATTACK ON HONESTY, CANDOR, AND OPEN POLITICS? I THINK NOT.

I honestly believe that true political reform can only come about in 1972 if intelligent citizens will repudiate this type of last-minute deal and vote for people who have shown REAL courage, REAL honesty, and who have not attempted to imply an endorsement by George McGovern...which any rational person knows does not exist.

If you will seriously consider the facts, I know that I can count on your support at the polls this Tuesday.

methods to do a satisfactory job. They can be very sophisticated so that they serve a specific purpose. Naturally, there are variables such as neighborhood, age, sex, income and transportation. But I would contend that these variables can be taken into consideration and made a part of the total measurement. And then there is the cost, e.g. time of staff and the actual monetary expense. Cost carries a big clout in this but the potential for improved programs and facility uses should outweigh the costs of a comprehensive measurement program.

What I am attempting to point out since the question came up is that there are means by which we can assess the local recreation effectiveness.

I presently use a fairly common system which provides information that is meaningful to me.

But in the near future, I hope that the recreation profession will get together and establish a method to let the decision makers in government know the exact effectiveness of recreation services thereby placing recreation in its deserved priority spot.

Recreation Roundup

A Logical Question: What Is Recreation

By Gary C. Ralph

Last week, the Recreation Round-up article referred to questions of public and political priority placement of recreation. It was gratifying that one political figure and several of the "silent majority" took the time to question me about the article.

One person asked an excellent question which immediately led to an in-depth discussion of just what I believed recreation to be for the average citizen.

The question, paraphrased, went something like, "How do you measure recreation effectiveness when the thing is so nebulous?"

The answer I gave left much to be desired.

Later, I put some more thought into the question, did the necessary research and would like to share with you the results.

It is easily recognizable that local governmental decision makers are provided with little in the way of systematic, dependable information as to how effectively recreation programs are serving citizens. Once I had defined the problem it was easy to list, ad infinitum, so-called measurements.

In my research, I found a report written by the Urban Institute under contract with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The many measures I had thought of were refined to eleven measurements and the scope and limitations of the measurements were discussed. They were listed as follows: participation, accessibility, crowdedness, variety, safety, physical attractiveness, perceived citizen satisfaction, crime and delinquency, health and economic well being. A discussion of collecting data for each measure with current practices and the need for specialized personnel were mentioned. However I don't want to pursue that discussion at this time.

What I do want to point out is that there are tools and the

Warrant Discussion Scheduled

The League of Women Voters is holding three meetings to discuss the October 2nd town meeting warrant.

The public meeting will be held on Thursday, Sept. 21, at 7:45 p.m. at the Doherty School Auditorium, Jan Scheerer moderator.

The League has invited representatives from the town boards and commissions with articles in the warrant. The purpose of the meeting is to offer the voters of Andover an explanation of the various articles on the warrant and an opportunity to question their sponsors.

A meeting will be held on Monday, Sept. 18, at 12:30 at the home of Dana Duxbury, 151 Hidden Road. A morning meeting will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 9:15 at West Parish Church. Babysitting will be provided. For reservations call Patricia Schwing.

Avery Undergoing Police Training

Steven C. Avery of the Andover police department is undergoing a training program at the state police academy in Framingham, according to Commissioner of Public Safety John F. Kehoe, Jr.

He is among 49 municipal police officers from 37 cities and towns in the Commonwealth, who are enrolled in the eight week intensive program.

The program is under the direction of Corporal Paul F. Matthews of the state police academy staff.

Hunt To Serve As Adviser

John S. Sullivan of Andover, Vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts State Board of Education, has announced that Dr. Herold C. Hunt has been appointed to serve as an adviser to the recently created special committee of the Board that has been chosen to recommend a successor to Dr. Neil V. Sullivan as Massachusetts Commissioner of Education. Dr. Hunt has been retained to assist the committee in the initial screening of applicants and potential candidates for the position.

Dr. Hunt is the noted educator, writer and lecturer who has served as Under Secretary of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare during the Eisenhower administration. In addition to serving on the faculty of Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern Universities, the Lexington resident has been Superintendent of Schools in New Rochelle, N.Y., Kansas City, Mo. and Chicago, Ill. It was because of his extensive background in urban education that Dr. Hunt was selected to assist the school committees of Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Dallas in their appointment of a chief school officer. Locally, in addition to the Boston assignment, Dr. Hunt has also advised the school systems of Quincy, Wellesley, Concord, Weston, Wayland and, most recently, Haverhill.

In commenting on the appointment, Mr. Sullivan, acting in his capacity as head of the State Board's Search Committee, stated, "The Commonwealth has been extremely fortunate in obtaining the services of Dr. Hunt. His extensive experience in assisting in the matter of screening candidates and making recommendations for leadership positions in American education is without equal. On behalf of my colleagues, I am most pleased that Dr. Hunt has joined us in our deliberations.

The State Board's Search Committee was formed shortly after the announcement of Dr. Sullivan's resignation in July. Since that time the Committee has been communicating with various individuals and groups representing elementary and secondary education in the Bay State to obtain their views and priorities. Upon the completion of this phase of the search and Dr. Hunt's work the Search Committee will make a series of recommendations to the State Board for final determination.

In addition to Mr. Sullivan, the Search Committee is composed of Mr. William P. Densmore of Worcester and Mr. J. Richard Early of Fairhaven. Oct. 1, 1972 has been set by the Committee as a deadline for the receipt of applications for the Commissioner's post.

Salt Use Hearing Tonight

A public hearing to assist town officials on the use of salt to combat winter road conditions will be held tonight at 7:30 in town hall.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin and Public Works Director Robert McQuade will conduct the hearing in keeping with a policy established by the selectmen and town meeting on regulating the use of salt.

The chemical has been in ecological controversy in recent years.

Ecology minded people point to the harmful effects of salt on the environment, while safety officials and those in charge of keeping roads safe for winter travel contend it is the only economically feasible deterrent to freezing conditions and icy roadways.

The hearing tonight is scheduled to explain the town's expeditious use of salt and to hear public views on the matter.

Former Town Manager Richard J. Bowen, at the March town meeting, had proposed a ban on salt, amended to establish regulations, which was defeated in favor of the selectmen's proposal to continue self-discipline on use of chlorides.

To Install Church School Teachers

Sunday School teachers for the new year will be installed at Faith Lutheran Church this Sunday, Sept. 17, during the 11 a.m. service.

Those being installed include: Superintendent: Ray Clayton; 11 a.m. classes: Doreen Hunt, Lynn Malmberg, Pat Myrom and Roberta Ede; 9:30 a.m. classes: Vi Curtin, Sue Hopkins, Matt Clayton, Ethel Olsen, Jim Reinher, John McMurray, Dan Thoren, Carl Johnson, George Schwedler and George Heiter. Substitutes include Sue Ellen Johnson and Martha Edgar.

Installing the teachers will be the pastor, Rev. Donald B. Myrom.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING WARRANT

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Essex, SS.

To either of the Constables of the Town of Andover Greeting:
In the name of the Commonwealth you are hereby required to notify and warn the Inhabitants of said Town who are qualified to vote in Town Affairs to meet and assemble at the Memorial Auditorium, Bartlet Street, in said Andover, on MONDAY, THE SECOND DAY OF OCTOBER, 1972

at 7:30 o'clock P.M., to act upon the following articles:

ARTICLE 1. To see if the Town will vote to raise by taxation and appropriate or transfer from available funds a sum not to exceed $500.00 to pay unpaid bills for which obligation was incurred in 1970 and 1971.

ARTICLE 2. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate by transfer from available funds the sum of $15,000.00 to pay for the cost of increased insurance premiums on Town buildings.

ARTICLE 3. To see if the Town will reaffirm its vote taken under Article 24 at the Special Town Meeting of October 6, 1969 by which it accepted Dorset Circle as a public way.

ARTICLE 4. To see if the Town will vote to amend its Bylaws by deleting Section 7 of Article XII and adopt a new section 7 to read as follows:

Section 7.

"No person shall fire or discharge any gun, fowling piece, pistol or other firearms within any street, public way, place or square in the Town except with the permission of the Board of Selectmen. No person shall discharge or fire any rifle of any caliber within the Town limits for any purpose except on an established range. This section does not apply to any firing in accordance with law except that no hunting shall be permitted with a rifle of any caliber", or to take any other action relative thereto.

ARTICLE 5. To see if the Town will vote to thank Mr. George Chongris for his generous gift to the Town of approximately nine acres of land located off Gray Road, to be held and used by the Town for conservation purposes.

Inserted at request of Conservation Commission.

ARTICLE 6. To see if the Town will vote to transfer to the jurisdiction and control of the Conservation Commission for all purposes included in General Laws, Chapter 40, Section 8C, as it now reads or may hereafter be amended, the following described lands of the Town of Andover acquired by tax takings:

1. Lot 4 of Assessors' Map 64 (Route 125).
2. Lot 37 of Assessors' Map 74 (on Shawheen River).
3. Lot 2A of Assessors' Map 150 (Haggetts Pond-Fish Brook swamp area).
4. Lot 9 of Assessors' Map 150 (abutting "Davideit" land already owned by Conservation Commission).

Inserted at request of Conservation Commission.

ARTICLE 7. To see if the Town will vote to appropriate from available funds the sum of $2,200.00 for the purchase of three (3) rescue boats and accessories, three (3) boat trailers, and one (1) outboard motor.

ARTICLE 8. To see if the Town will vote to appropriate from available funds the sum of $5,000.00 for the purpose of cleaning and cement lining a six inch cast iron sanitary sewer serving the easterly section of Harding Street.

ARTICLE 9. To see if the Town will vote to turn over to the Andover Housing Authority three acres of land, more or less, comprising the old dump on High Street for use as low and/or middle income housing, or what it will do in regard thereto.

Inserted at request of Andover Housing Authority.

ARTICLE 10. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate $9,000.00 to be used to replace broken and defective windows at the High School.

ARTICLE 11. To see if the Town will vote to accept as a public way, an additional portion of WILD ROSE DRIVE, south from the intersection of Hickory Lane, past Hemlock Road, and west to the next intersection with Hemlock Road, and including a drainage easement across lots #91-96 and 112 and sewer and drainage easements across lot 200 as shown on plans which have been approved by the Andover Planning Board, said way being shown on a plan entitled "Subdivision and Acceptance Plan, Rolling Green, Subdivider, John Philip Enterprises, Inc., Clinton F. Goodwin, Reg. Prof. Eng., February, 1962", Section 3, sheet 1 and Section 4, sheet 1, as recorded on Plan numbered 4467 in the Essex No. District Registry of Deeds and a plan entitled "Resubdivision of Land as Subdivided for Sherwood Homes, Inc., in Andover, Mass. John Shields, Developer, May 21, 1967, James W. Bougioukas, Reg. Prof. Eng." as recorded as Plan No. 5675 in the Essex No. District Registry of Deeds.

ARTICLE 12. To see if the Town will vote to accept as a public way, an additional portion of WILD ROSE DRIVE, south from the intersection of Holly Terrace and east to the intersection of Hemlock Road as shown on a plan which has been approved by the Andover Planning Board, said way being shown on a plan entitled "Subdivision and Acceptance Plan, Rolling Green, Subdivider, John Philip Enterprises, Inc., Clinton F. Goodwin, Reg. Prof. Eng., February, 1962", Section 4, sheet 2, as recorded on Plan number 4467 in the Essex No. District Registry of Deeds.

ARTICLE 13. To see if the Town will vote to appropriate from available funds the sum of $3,000.00 for the construction of an outlet structure on the pond located northerly of Hemlock Road and on the storm drainage system between Hemlock Road and Wild Rose Drive.

ARTICLE 14. To see if the Town will vote to acquire by gift all or a portion of Lot 200 as shown on a plan entitled "Resubdivision of Land as Subdivided for Sherwood Homes, Inc.", Andover, Mass. by James W. Bougioukas, Reg. Prof. Civil Engineer and recorded as Plan No. 5675 in the North Essex Registry of Deeds.

ARTICLE 15. To see if the Town will vote to appropriate the sum of $35,000 for the purpose of installing a water main not less than 8 inches and not more than 12 inches in Salem Street from Wethersfield Drive to Wagon Wheel Road and in Wagon Wheel Road, and to determine whether the same shall be raised by taxation, by transfer from available funds, by borrowing, or by any combination of the foregoing, or to take any other action. The installation follows the master plan as adjusted to current and future needs. Betterments are to be assessed. On petition of Ann-Marie C. Schmidt and others.

ARTICLE 16. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the Conservation Commission to acquire for conservation purposes under General Laws Chapter 40, Section 8C, as amended, the fee in the following described parcel of land:

Lot 5C of Assessors' Map 197, consisting of approximately 5 acres, supposed to be owned by Sidney P. White, said acquisition to be made by expenditure from the Conservation Fund and only upon such terms as the Board of Selectmen shall approve.

Inserted at request of Conservation Commission.

ARTICLE 17. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the Conservation Commission to acquire for conservation purposes under General Laws Chapter 40, Section 8C, as amended, the fee in the following described parcel of land:

Lot 5 of Assessors' Map 195, consisting of approximately 10 acres, supposed to be owned by John Bolton, Jr., said acquisition to be made by expenditure from the Conservation Fund and only upon such terms as the Board of Selectmen shall approve.

Inserted at request of Conservation Commission.

ARTICLE 18. To see if the Town will vote to make the following changes to the Zoning Bylaw, (Article VIII):

AMEND Section I. (Purpose) by adding the following new Paragraph a.:

a. The purpose of the flood plain area is to control land use encroachments and development in areas unsuited for intended purposes because of flood hazards; to protect human life and health; to minimize public and private property damage; to protect, preserve and maintain the water table; to assure the continuation of the natural flow pattern of the water course(s); to minimize surface and ground-water pollution which will affect human, animal, or plantlife; and to provide for public awareness of the flooding potential.

AMEND Section II (Definitions) by adding the following new definitions:

23. Flood. An overflow of lands not normally covered by water and that are used or usable by man. Floods have two essential characteristics: the inundation of land is temporary; and the land is adjacent to and inundated by overflow from a river, stream, ocean, lake, or other body of standing water.

24. Flood Plain. The areas adjoining a river, stream, watercourse, ocean, lake, or other body of standing water that have been or may be covered by floodwater.

25. Intermediate Regional Flood. A flood having an average frequency of occurrence in the order of once in 100 years although the flood may occur in any year, i.e., all the flood plain area has a one percent (1%) chance of being flooded each year while some portion of it may be flooded every year.

AMEND Section III. (Establishment of Districts) by adding the following new Paragraph E. (Flood Plain Area Delineation):

E. Flood Plain Area Delineation
The Flood Plain Area, designated approximately on Property Maps of Andover, Mass. (Zoning - Assessors' Maps) on public display in the Planning Board Office, is subject to controls on development.

The Flood Plain Area is derived from the maps within the Corps of Engineers report, Flood Plain Information, prepared for Lawrence, Methuen, Andover and North Andover - March, 1972. The Flood Plain Area shown on the Property Maps coincides with the Intermediate Regional Flood (IRF) delineation on the Corps of Engineers Maps.

AMEND Section IV.A. (Use Regulations - Permitted Uses) by adding a new Paragraph #5 as follows:

5. In Flood Plain Area, - such areas are subject to control in all zoning districts of the Town of Andover. In the flood plain areas those uses consistent with flood plain management, (i.e. subject to preventive measures for reducing flood damage), are permitted only if consistent with the permitted uses of the zoning district in which the flood plain area is located and only if all conditions for a special permit are fulfilled. (See Section VI.H.).

Existing structures and uses not consistent with proper flood plain management are granted a non-conforming status and are subject to Zoning Bylaw, Section VII, Non-Conformance.

AMEND Section IV. (Use Regulations) by adding the following new Paragraph under NOTE:

NOTE: All uses listed below are subject to the special permit requirements of flood plain areas where applicable.

AMEND Section VI. (Other Requirements) by adding the following new Paragraph H.:

H. Flood Plain Area
In granting a special permit the Board of Appeals shall be satisfied that the conditions set forth in Section VIII B.2 as well as the following conditions are met:

1. The Board of Appeals shall be satisfied that the proposed structure or use will not be contrary to the purposes of flood plain area management or the permitted uses in the Zoning District in which the flood plain area is located.
2. The Board of Appeals shall ascertain that the request has been referred to the Planning Board, the Board of Health, the Conservation Commission (and the Industrial Commission when in an industrial zone) and reported upon by all three (four) Boards within 15 days after the Public Hearing. Plans for a proposed site development should include existing and proposed buildings, original and final grade elevations, showing contours at 1' elevations with the I.R.F. line plotted on these contours, and the methods of grading, filling and drainage.
3. Geographic location map of proposed building indicating security of driveway or walkway access to it during flooding must be provided.
4. Foundation elevations as related to the Intermediate Regional Flood level at proposed building (s) and security of foundations during flooding, including assurance that foundations would not be undermined and that the proposed building would not be floated-off, swept-away, nor battered-off during flooding, must be provided.
5. Disposal of sewage from the proposed building, containment of sewage during flooding, and the safety of water, sewage, gas, electric and fuel utilities from breaking, leaking, short-circuiting, grounding, igniting, electrocution or other dangers during flooding must be adequately handled.
6. Guidelines for granting permission for new construction or ARTICLE 23. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the use of the balance of the funds appropriated under Article 18 of the Warrant of the Annual Town Meeting of 1966 now in the amount of $3,860.43 for the planning of improvements to the recreation area of Andover Recreation Park in addition to the planning of improvements to Pumps Pond as voted by the 1966 Annual Town Meeting.

ARTICLE 24. To see if the Town will vote to appropriate from available funds the sum of $15,000.00 for a mosquito control project.

ARTICLE 25. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the Conservation Commission to acquire for conservation purposes under General Laws Chapter 40, Section 8C, as amended, the fee in the following described parcel of land:

Lot 38 of Assessors' Map 140, supposed to be owned by Marjorie L. Combs and Agnes M. Grove.
Said acquisition is to be made by expenditure from the Conservation Fund and only upon such terms as the Board of Selectmen shall approve.

Inserted at request of the Conservation Commission.

ARTICLE 26. To see if the Town will vote to inaugurate a town-wide solid waste collection service in 1973 and further to vote to appropriate from available funds the sum of $5,000.00 for the employment of consultants in the development of a solid waste collection program complete with specifications and contract documents for use in competitive bidding.

ARTICLE 27. To see if the Town will vote to acquire, by purchase, by gift, or by seizure by right of eminent domain, all, or portions of lots 2 and 3 as shown on Assessors' Map 141 and all, or portions of lot 3 on Assessors' Map 121 and supposed to be owned by John J. & Timothy F. Cronin, Bette Brooks, John L. & Grace L. Cyr, and to develop said lots for a Sanitary Landfill, to appropriate a sum of money not to exceed $370,000.00 therefor, to see how said appropriation shall be raised either by taxation, transfer from available funds, borrowing or otherwise, and to take any other action relative thereto.

ARTICLE 28. To see if the Town will vote to acquire, by purchase, by gift, or by seizure by right of eminent domain, all, or portions of lot 2 as shown on Assessors' Map 161 and all or portions of lot 4 as shown on Assessors' Map 162 and supposed to be owned by Nicholas H. Fitzgerald, and to develop said lots for a Sanitary Landfill, to appropriate a sum of money not to exceed $960,000.00 therefor, to see how said appropriation shall be raised either by taxation, transfer from available funds, borrowing or otherwise and to take any other action relative thereto.

ARTICLE 29. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the Conservation Commission to acquire by gift, by purchase, or by right of eminent domain, for conservation purposes under General Laws Chapter 40, Section 8C, as amended, or as hereafter further amended, the fee in the following described land:

Lot 1 shown on Town Assessors' Map 140 EXCLUDING the following described portions, - Beginning at the northerly most corner of Lot 1 on Town Assessors' Map 140 at a point on Woburn Street; thence southeasterly along Woburn Street a distance of 1080 feet; thence northwesterly 980 feet, more or less, to the southerly corner of lots 2L and 2M on Town Assessors' Map 140; thence northeasterly along the southerly boundary of lots 2M and 2N on Town Assessors' Map 140 664 feet; more or less, to the point of beginning.

Intending to EXCLUDE 6 building lots along Woburn Street. The funds for such purchase or taking to be expended from the conservation fund, or from the unused portion of the funds appropriated under Article 37 of the warrant for the adjourned Annual Town Meeting held on March 7, 1970, or by any combination of the two, any funds expended from the conservation fund to be expended only with the approval of the Board of Selectmen.

Inserted at the request of the Conservation Commission.

And you are directed to serve this warrant by posting attested copies and publication thereof, seven days at least before the time and place of said meeting as directed by the By-Laws of the Town. ## The Taming Of A Wild River

By Polly Bradley

On the last good beach day before that dreaded event known as First Day of School, I took the children to the beach.

After a lively swim, cut short because the water temperature already anticipated the advent of New England winter, the boys came out of the water and began to play their favorite game, Corps of Engineers.

There's a spot on our slowly sloping beach where a small spring makes a tiny arc of a river, which flows gently to the ocean after the tide has gone out.

And what good engineer can resist a little river? Usually the river is jammed with boys, until it has a whole series of small dams, a veritable Tennessee Valley Authority in miniature.

A surfboard became a barge as our friend Cedric dredged sand at one side of the river and son Scott, the captain of the barge, transferred the sand over to Engineer Randy, who deposited it and created the dam.

Soon Cedric, Scott and Randy had made a fine lake. But having the enthusiasm natural to true-born engineers, they could not rest on their laurels. The lake must be bigger! The dam must be longer!

They even refused to come to lunch. Finally, seeing nothing would induce them to leave their labor of love, I brought lunch to their lake.

That's when the conservation trouble started. Cynthia, our two-year-old, took up residence in the lake, where she proceeded to pollute it by dropping half her peanut butter and jelly sandwich into its serene waters.

"Now she's really messed things up," said Scott.

"It will take forever for it to get clean again," said Cedric.

"Get that sea monster out!" said Randy, picking up Cynthia and depositing her, dripping and sandy, on my dry lap.

The water remained polluted, of course. What started out as one large glop of pollution ended up messy bits of bread, peanut, and strawberry spread evenly around the lake, leaving no spot clean or pleasant.

But at this moment disaster struck. Upstream, a dam was broken, where some other boys had been building. A flood of water was released, and pollution was forgotten as the boys mustered all forces to prevent their dam from being washed away, too. "Sand bags!" shouted Randy, as Scott and Cedric filled the surfboard barge with a great load of sand and parked it at the most dangerous spot. But to no avail. . . soon another breach, and another, were formed, and the fine lake was drained.

Then Scott yelled, "Look! It's washing out the dam downstream!"

Sure enough, downstream another dam, belonging to another set of boys, was going fast. Scott, Randy and Cedric raced down to see. So did the other boys from upstream. So did a large, black dog. All the boys started working to save the dam, and the large dog started digging furiously. Unfortunately, he was digging right on the dam, and seven boys together couldn't keep him from totally wrecking it.

Moral? A little pollution goes a long way. When the dams go, you really get a whale of a flood. And the taming of a wild river isn't always so simple as it seems.

AN AWARD WINNER. The Andover Finance Committee report for this year was chosen tops in its class in the state Association of Finance Boards contest. Here, Chairman Frank Byrne examines the 1972 report with Past Chairman Dr. Albert Greenberg.

FinCom Report Is Tops

The Finance committee has received the top award for its annual report in statewide competition conducted by the Association of Town Finance Committees.

The report, composed by Former Chairman Dr. Albert J. Greenberg, and Former Town Manager Richard J. Bowen, was adjudged the best in competition among communities under 25,000 population.

Stuart DeBard, executive secretary of the association, informed the local FinCom that the report was adjudged to be the most complete presented in the competition this year.

In its scoring systems, E is the top classification and in several areas, the Andover report had double and triple E's. The association requested 30 additional copies to be used as an example for other communities.

Considered in the better than excellent category in the judging was the breakdown of the municipal budget and the categorizing of the town's school budget.

Publication of maps for the benefit of voters in seeing areas under consideration for rezoning, as well as street acceptances, was also considered a prime asset of the report.

In the overall comments regarding the report, DeBard states, "one of the best looking and easiest reading reports I have seen. Congratulations on an excellent job."

The association director and judging committee made recommendations on the report, such as eliminating the listing of town officials, a matter they feel rather belongs in the annual town report.

They also ask for a more elaborate listing in the budget section of major departments.

This year was the first in which the FinCom tried the expanded information approach and it was well received at town meeting.

It is anticipated that the informational document which contained reports and recommendations of all committees and boards dealing with specific articles will be continued.

Chairman Frank Byrne, who took over from Dr. Greenberg, said that it was his intent to continue the report format in 1973 and to examine the recommendations made by the association.

Cafeteria Available

The school cafeteria department is offering its services for banquets for community groups in school buildings, E. A. Mangifesti, Director of Foods, said this week.

In keeping with the superintendent's policy of utilizing the schools to their fullest, Mangifesti said, the cafeteria staff will prepare banquets for different groups. The facilities and service will be available most evenings and Saturdays and Sundays.

"We also want the public to know that we are doing our best to please children, parents and school lunch authorities in the presentation of all our meals. We are open to all suggestions, and welcome any parent to visit any of our nine kitchens at any time. Please call to make an appointment if you so wish."

Inquiries about the banquet service should be made to Mr. Mangifesti, Director of Foods, Jackson School, Bartlett St. Telephone: 475-1081.

Outdoor Art Course Is Offered

The world of nature is valuable to us not only because it gives us clean air to breathe and food to eat, but also because it offers us a source of beauty. Have you ever seen a spider's web transformed into a crystal necklace by drops of rain? -- or have you ever watched a thunderhead building over hills at the end of a summer's day and wished you could capture it on paper, knowing your memory of it will not last?

Georgia Pugh has taught art classes at Montserrat School of Visual Art and the North Shore Community College. She will give personal guidance to individuals interested in learning to interpret nature artistically. The Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Nature Center and Wildlife Sanctuary is sponsoring her course "Exploring Nature Through Art" which will deal primarily in drawing landscapes and natural objects. All classes will be outdoors in good weather; the first class will be Wednesday, Sept. 27. Anyone interested in further information should call the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield.

SAUTERNES

The luscious, sweet, dessert wines of Sauternes, France are among the most unusual in the world. Sauternes is always a sweet wine. The name is used (often without the final "s") to label wines from other countries that range from mellow to dry. But there is no such thing as a dry Sauternes from the Bordeaux district.

The wine is made by leaving the grapes on the vine beyond the normal harvest time. The resulting overripeness produces a juice extremely rich in sugar; a sweet dessert wine which is a completely natural table wine and not fortified as are Port and Sherry.

The proper combination of climatic conditions does not happen every year. Furthermore, the yield per acre is considerably lower than for dry wines. Nevertheless, Sauternes is not an expensive wine. Even good vintage years are a tremendous value for those who enjoy its distinctive taste.

Merged Y's Fall Program Set

The Andover - North Andover YMCA comes into existence with the beginning of its Fall Program, displacing the Andover YMCA and the Community Centers of North Andover, Inc.

The Community Center will remain a corporate entity but will no longer conduct programs, relinquishing that responsibility in favor of the new YMCA operation serving the two towns.

The Andover YMCA building on 10 Brook St. will be the headquarters and business office of the new Andover - North Andover YMCA. All records will be maintained at this office necessitating registration for programs at this same location.

The North Andover Community Center will be operated by the YMCA for YMCA programs as deemed advisable.

General registration will open at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 19, at the Andover Y on a first come first served basis. Residents of Andover and North Andover may enroll, on an equal basis, for YMCA programs at the Andover YMCA building or the North Andover Community Center building, or Phillips Academy or elsewhere.

Folders have been mailed to all members of record of the Andover YMCA and the North Andover Community Center. Any residents of the two towns who have not received a folder by mail by the end of this week may obtain one at the YMCA building.

With a few exceptions the Fall Term program starts the week of Sept. 23. An exhibit of hand-craft products related to courses scheduled for this term will be on exhibit at the Andover YMCA building this week on Thursday 7-9 p.m. and on Friday 9-5 p.m. The schedule follows, with locations of courses noted on folders:

Associated In Practice Of Dentistry

Dr. Douglas S. Browell, D.M.D., is associated with Dr. Richard T. Secord in the practice of general dentistry at 2 Elm Square.

Dr. Browell was born in Ridgway, Pa. He resided for some time in Port Jefferson, N.Y., where he graduated from E. L. Vandermeulen High School. Following high school he did his pre-dental studies at the State University of New York at Stony Brook where he received his B.S. degree in the field of Biology. Dr. Browell received his D.M.D. degree from Tufts University School of Dental Medicine where he graduated cum laude. While in dental school he was elected to membership in Omicron Kappa Upsilon (Honorary Dental Society); and received the American Academy of Dental Radiology Award for high achievement in the field of Oral Roentgenology.

Dr. Browell and his wife, JoAnne, are presently residing in North Andover.

Wild Edibles

The early Colonial settlers knew which plants around them could be used for food -- and which could not! With groceries or supermarkets close to everyone in today's world, most of us don't know which wild plants are edible. And yet these wild foods can still be served as anything from a camper's soup to a gourmet's appetizer, if we know the plants!

The Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Natural Center and Wildlife Sanctuary is sponsoring a course entitled "Wild Edibles" to instruct people interested in learning what common wild plants are edible. Mrs. Lucy Kimball instructs the course which begins on Saturday, Sept. 23 from 1 to 3 p.m. On two Monday evenings the class will meet to learn how to cook the wild plants. Anyone interested in further information should call the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield.

Garden Feature At Exposition

A landscaped outdoor garden of Massachusetts-grown flowers -- indoors -- will be the feature of the Massachusetts State Building when the Eastern States Exposition opens in West Springfield on Sept. 15, reports the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture.

Terraced, and complete with a waterfall, the display is made up entirely of flowers and plants from the commercial greenhouses of the Bay State. It has been months in the planning by the Massachusetts Flower Growers Association.

The Eastern States Exposition -- the "Big E" -- is the largest fair in the east, and possibly in the entire country. Some 800,000 visitors attended last year during its ten-day run.

The Massachusetts State Building is a permanent exhibit on the Avenue of States, and like all its sister buildings, is open to the public without charge.

Roadside farm stands across the state are overflowing with fall produce from Massachusetts farms.

Most stands are well stocked with delicious red McIntosh and Gravenstein apples. Apples make an excellent lunch-box snack for the kids as they head back to school.

Other produce in good supply now are the fall squashes, butternut, buttercup and turban; the several varieties of beans, beets, cabbage, cucumbers (many farm stands carry the popular pickling cukes too), and all the varieties of peppers which are great for making pepper relish. Romaine lettuce is an especially good buy this week.

Many farm stands are now featuring hardy chrysanthemums for fall planting. If your garden is a little spotty now that some of the summer blooms have passed, hardy mums will add that late season splash of color, and they will last until the really cold weather arrives. They are very reasonable too.

For interior decoration this fall, many roadside farmstands have several types of gourds to bring that autumn feeling inside.

Yom Kippur Services Are Scheduled

The congregation of Temple Emanuel of Merrimack Valley, 101 West Forest St., Lowell, lead by Rabbi Everett Gendler in the Reform tradition, will observe the last days of the High Holy days of the New Year 5733, with Yom Kippur services on Sunday, Sept. 17 at 8 p.m. and Monday, Sept. 18 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

A sitter for the younger children will be available at the Temple.

All friends, newcomers and visitors are welcome to worship.

Cronin

Voters on Tuesday will face a most important decision as an initial step toward filling the vacancy created by the appointment of Congressman F. Bradford Morse to the United Nations.

Selection of a Republican and Democratic nominee will be made by the electorate.

The choice in the primary is as important as the ultimate selection of our national representative in November.

Congressman Morse during his years of service to the Fifth Congressional District served the area well. It was through his efforts that considerable federal aid was channelled to the area and to Andover in particular.

His ability to accomplish things for those he represented is well known.

At his side during many of those years was a young man from Andover, a student of government, who served as this community's selectman for a time and also in the General Court.

Paul W. Cronin through his schooling in the difficult political area of local state and federal government, would appear to have learned his lessons well.

Seldom is a Congressional district afforded the opportunity of filling a vacancy with a man knowledgeable of the needs and the channels in which efforts can be directed to best suit the area.

In Cronin, the district has such a man and we endorse his candidacy for the Republican nomination.

A Boost

We applaud the selection of the Finance Committee report as the top among the state as adjudged by the Association of Town Finance committee.

The report issued to voters this year was the most complete and detailed document ever produced here, or in surrounding areas.

To accomplish the task took considerable effort on the part of FinCom members and volunteers, in particular former Town Manager Richard J. Bowen.

In the judgment of those who examined the report for the state association, Andover's report scored far above the criteria level established.

Among the innovations produced within the report this year was a complete documentation of the school budget, maps showing locations of new utility installation, street acceptances and areas of proposed zoning changes.

In general it was a complete package for the town's taxpayers to peruse prior to town meeting and to use as a guide during the process of the session.

The result was a town meeting of complete understanding.

We trust that the practice of producing such a report initiated this year will be continued and that the award will be but the first of many.

Anything that leads to a better understanding of municipal operations and allows those in attendance at town meeting to act with complete knowledge is commendable.

And A Knock

While on the subject of the Finance Committee and its efforts to producing better understanding, we have to look apprehensively at current deliberations concerning the town dump site.

Scheduled for consideration at the Oct. 2 meeting, some FinCom members this week gave the impression they were examining alternatives to the town's solid waste disposal problem on their own.

This is fine and a gesture to be appreciated, but a sharing of the information would be advisable and soon, since time is growing short.

Public Works Director Robert McQuade has been putting together a package outlining cost factors of dumping refuse locally and out-of-town.

FinCom member Dr. Albert J. Greenberg has likewise been doing research on his own, as a subcommittee member of the financiers.

Greenberg was giving indication Monday night that he had information which would show how refuse could be carted out of Andover at a lesser cost than McQuade was proposing.

McQuade pleaded with the FinCom, if they had such knowledge to share it, "the town would be more than happy to have such information," McQuade emphasized.

Greenberg said that such information would be made available as soon as his studies are complete, probably by Sept. 25, maybe before.

One point is that a decision is due in a couple of weeks which will result in the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars.

If there is discrepancy in figures between FinCom members and town authorities, the matter should be cleared up immediately and well in advance of the Oct. 2 session.

If accelerated effort is required to produce all facts relative to the selection of a dump site and its future operation, than let's have that extra effort.

A decision which will have a bearing on at least $1 per thousand of the town's tax rate is not something which should be subject to a cat and mouse game.

Let us have all facts in ample time to make a proper decision on Oct. 2.

Off The Top Of The Desk

A little tip to the space shot scientists:

If you're looking for ideas on how to fit everything into a compact space ship, why not consult some of the resident students at prep schools and colleges in the vicinity.

The annual return to the campus was culminated this past weekend at Phillips, Abbot and Merrimack. Carloads of clothing, equipment and incidentals poured onto the campuses hereabouts and how the young people manage to pile all that material into their dormitory cubicles, defies imagination.

Would all those ex-servicemen who found K.P. duty and policing cigarette butts in the category of character building and wholesome exercise, please affirm their feelings to the Congress.

A budget item to have such details handled by civilian personnel was questioned and ultimately cut from the consideration this past week.

Reasons for refusing to relegate the matter to non-service personnel were the aforementioned, which might just be reclassified to backbreaking rather than character building.

Beg pardon!

One of our local entomologists (think that's the word for bug experts) informs us that our recent photo of gypsy moth invasion was in error.

Those silken sacks dangling from trees contain fall web worms which does not eat anything in this particular stage of life.

Thanks! Finally found a bug that just lies there and does nothing for a while.

Ah the indefatigable computer. Never in error, used in dating procedures, and all sorts of modern science, business procedures, etc.

At the recent concluding ceremonies of the Olympics, a greeting was flashed on the board for the retiring Avery Brundage.

The screen poured forth the greeting to "Avery Brundage," with the error being blamed on a faulty computer.

Before anyone comments, we were among the skeptics of the Red Sox fortunes earlier this year and through these columns had some odd and sundry comments.

We hereby join all the past critics in wishing our Boston heroes well the rest of the way and hopefully another pennant in Fenway before the end of the month.

For the sports minded it's multiple choice time again. Red Sox and football offerings on the weekend, a little hockey and basketball thrown in here and there.

Bruins and Celtics began training sessions this week for their annual winter sojourn.

Still another sports note. Hats off to ABC for its Olympic coverage.

Despite the tragedy, outcomes, problems, etc., the cameras were there to bring the games home in full color in a most brilliant spectacular.

State Secretary John F. X. Davoren, chairman of the Massachusetts Historical Commission, has hailed the decision of the U.S. Interior Department's National Park Service to place the Middlesex canal in Middlesex county and the Choate bridge in Ipswich on the National Register of Historic Places. George B. Hartzog, Jr., director of the Park Service, informed secretary Davoren that the nominations made by Massachusetts had been approved.

The Middlesex canal, oldest of its size in the U.S., was completed in 1803. It runs through Woburn, Wilmington, Billerica, Chelmsford and Lowell. It was constructed contemporaneously with the Santee canal in South Carolina and since little was known in the field of civil engineering in the early 1800's, it was marked with many "firsts." The act of incorporation for the canal was signed by Gov. John Hancock and it was built under the organizational leadership of James Sullivan, later a governor of the Commonwealth. Running for 27-1/4 miles, it connected the Merrimack River with Boston and served for a model for more ambitious projects such as the Erie canal. Col. Loammi Baldwin was the engineering genius of the project. Use of the canal peaked in the 1820's and 1830's. The first steam tow or tug tow was

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I read a TOWNSMAN Newsfeature as of Sept. 7-72. The newsfeature stated that Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert - Superintendent of Schools in Andover - that an unusual course would be implemented this year in our Public School that is - Courtesy A Course. This course will include adults - parents - students. This course sounds great and sure is needed in these difficult times. After reading about the course I acquired the following thoughts that is - Courtesy helps our perception in all matters of life. Discourtesy damages our perception. Courtesy goes far and pays big dividends.

I learn a great deal from talking to persons whether in the Educational - Business - Professional or the Trades field, who are courteous - humble - good listeners and who respect me as a person. Rather than a person who struts to impress one he knows it all. That type of person words mystify me rather than clarify what he stands for.

To all students in our Andover Public Schools may I make a friendly suggestion - Be courteous at all times to your teachers and parents. This will make you a better student every time. To students involved in sports be courteous - play the game in the right spirit and principal - Be a good loser as well as a winner O.K.

I liked what Supt. Seifert said in regards to students becoming involved in community services. In so doing they would present to the people in Andover that students do appreciate the educational system offered here in Andover. It is one of the finest. These services will help students - thru serving to help themselves then serving to become better students. Also it will go to make character which we all strive for, I am sure.

Supt. Seifert has done a remarkably fine job in his position as top administrator in the Andover School system. With his capability - plus dignity plus natural ability to get things done - plus cooperation of our school committee - teachers - students and parents. All these pluses will enable Supt. Seifert to do a better job in his position as top administrator in the Andover Public Schools in the years that lie ahead. Co-operation is the keynote to success.

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

The League of Women Voters urges all voters to vote in the Massachusetts state primary election on Tuesday, September 19. Often suffering from low voter turnout, the state primary still gives voters a real choice of many different candidates with widely varying stands on the issues.

Some new election laws will directly affect this election. Absentee ballots are available for the first time in a state primary. Another law makes it easier for the independent voter to revert to his unenrolled status immediately after voting. Cards will be available at the polls upon request which may be filled out and mailed to the town clerk, thus maintaining the name on the voting list as unenrolled.

Vote on September 19. Massachusetts cannot afford a silent majority on primary day.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - September, 1897

Chief Mears was notified Wednesday that a stray team had been picked up in the Ballardvale woods. The turnout was claimed Friday morning by Reading parties.

The Phillips Academy football team will meet the Tufts College eleven at the academy on Oct. 7.

The Lawrence Furniture Co., has opened display rooms in their new location in the Musgrove building.

Andover ladies will be pleased to learn that fashionable parlors for hair dressing and manicuring are now opened in the Musgrove building by out-of-town parties. The triangular plot of land on Central street across from South church is being resodded.

50 Years Ago - September, 1922

Gov. Channing Cox and Lt. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller strongly favored in Andover during the state primary election during which only one third of the electorate turned out.

A complete reorganization of the music department promises uniquely fine instruction for vocal and instrumental students as Abbot Academy reopens for the year.

Andover public schools opened with 1,222 pupils. An extra room may have to be hired in Shaw-sheen where 109 pupils are registered in the Richardson school and it is expected the figure will increase.

Thaxter Eaton has become the Andover representative for the Harvard Economic committee.

It was a bad week on Andover highways with the police attending to automobile, motorcycle and pedestrian accidents.

25 Years Ago - September, 1947

If 15 pupils show up at the North school, the building will be used for classrooms this year, otherwise, the children will be transported to the West Center school.

The police received a report of a lost black horse in the West Andover area this week.

A complaint was filed with the police this week by a motorist who said that while travelling on County Road, a bullet passed through his rear mudguard.

Sacred Heart Boarding school in Shawsheen reopened this week for its second year of operation.

A large group of candidates reported for the initial football practice at Punchard High under new head coach Walter Roberts of North Andover.

10 Years Ago - September, 1962

Director Ernest N. Hall, Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien and Housing Chairman David Mac-Donald are in New York confer-ring with federal officials concerning the proposed Urban Renewal project.

West Andover residents speak to selectmen about industrial classification of property, noting that their holdings could be sold for residential purposes more easily.

A selection of ancient art from the Horace L. Mayer Collection currently on view at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts celebrates the connoisseurship of the late Mr. Mayer. For over 40 years gifts and loans from the Mayer Collection have enriched the Mu-seum's collections, particularly in the field of Egyptian art. In this exhibition, outstanding works from the Mayer collection are exhibited together for the first time.

Approximately 50 works from the Middle Kingdom to the Roman period in Egypt (2000 B.C. to 200 A.D.) include important pieces of jewelry, bronze, ceramics, glass and faience. Several works from the Classical world and the Ancient Near East complement the Egyptian art. En-titled Gifts and Loans from the Horace L. Mayer Collection, the exhibition will continue in the Recent Accessions Gallery until November 5.

Lots of people are unhappy with their jobs. Lots of people think they were meant for something better. And lots of people don't do a thing about it. Because they aren't willing to make the sacrifices necessary to earn a college degree by attending evening classes. But if a vital, responsible position in business or engineering means enough to you, you'll make the sacrifices. And come out a winner.

Merrimack College has a national reputation for academic excellence. And a faculty that knows which skills are in demand by modern business and industry. The Evening Program may be for you. If you can't afford to quit your present job now. And can't afford to keep your present job forever.

Beacon Hill Observations

By Bill Kirtz

"People assume that either private citizens or public institutions can own land. There is a middle way."

So says Edward Webster of the International Independence Institute, whose organization is interested in sparking some unconventional Massachusetts moves to put undeveloped land to the best possible use.

The Institute is located in Ashby, near the New Hampshire border. From there, it has followed with interest, and often with participation, efforts in such varied parts of the state as Harvard, Wayland, Worcester and Lincoln to establish some form of a "land bank" to protect vacant tracts.

Under this "land bank" or "land trust" theory, a cross-section of area residents would determine a tract's "best use" and then lease portions of it to developers, farmers or conservationists.

When the lease expires, the land would revert back to the "bank" for a reappraisal of its best use.

Now, communities can acquire land either by eminent domain or by agreeing with owners on a fair purchase price. Generally, conservation is the motive -- with large tracts of land acquired on a year-by-year, parcel-by-parcel basis geared to the community's financial ability.

This method, however, allows developers to move in ahead of public bodies and snap up available land.

Beyond conservation

A "land bank," proponents say, can reflect public wishes, speed up land-taking and widen the possibility of open space use beyond conservation.

The state's Department of Natural Resources and the federal Outdoor Recreation Bureau are working with Lincoln area plans to determine what open spaces and historic sites should be protected in that area, to widen the public's control over privately-owned land.

In Wayland, they're going further by authorizing the concept of a private land trust to sell tracts to the town for specific uses. If the intended use isn't adhered to, under this plan, the tract reverts back to the land bank.

Such groups as the Audubon Society have for years been setting Massachusetts land aside for wildlife sanctuaries, public recreation and watershed protection. Members of these organizations are interested in the example set by Maine. There, one land trust specializes in buying land, restricting it to protect ecological and social values and then selling or giving tracts to people or groups committed to these values. Other such land trusts and banks are in formation there.

Mr. Webster notes that the International Independence Institute has developed America's largest land trust: 5,735 acres in Georgia. More than 800 families will settle there in three "town clusters," with an industrial park, a cultural center and school and health facilities planned to supplement farming activities.

The land trust concept works well in Israel, Mr. Webster adds, where the Jewish National Fund owns some 60 percent of all the land.

"This eliminates speculation," he says. "The public or the trust buys the tract at its market value."

North Andover A While Ago

75 Years Ago - September, 1897

The Merrimack Schoolhouse was broken into over the weekend and much maliciousness occurred. Pendulums from clocks were taken from room two and room seven. Flowers were taken from vases and strewn about and cabinets emptied.

The railroad station at Ingalls crossing has been newly repainted.

Clark's hotel in the south district has closed for the season. In some places in town on Friday the mercury registered 104 degrees.

At the annual meeting of the North Andover Improvement Society, it was reported that the group had recently planted 90 maples and ten elms.

50 Years Ago - September, 1922

A good sized crowd of both male and female voters were in Jefferson Square Monday night for a political rally in which William F. Connery of Lynn, candidate for congress in the seventh district outlined his plans.

A rummage sale will be conducted Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. in town hall for the benefit of the Russian Refugees in Constantinople Emergency Fund.

The Johnson High football team must find itself another captain since Ben Annis has decided to attend school elsewhere.

Members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church will conduct a practice track meet tonight at Grogan's field in preparation for the Merrimack Valley meet later this month.

The farmers about town are quite proud and happy to report a fine, large crop of peaches this year.

25 Years Ago - September, 1947

Thomas A. Broderick, a member of the Board of Fire Engineers for over 15 years, dies suddenly.

An appeal is made by the new Augustinian College of the Merrimack Valley for rooms for out of town students.

The selectmen have been advised that all owners of signs extending over the sidewalk must post a bond with the town clerk in the amount of $1,000.

Tree Warden John Connors has been asked to look into the problem of the large swarms of tent caterpillars which are plaguing the town, in some sections covering rooftops of houses, falling out of trees.

The school enrollment on Monday, the first full week of school was 1,120 as compared to 1,095 on opening day.

10 Years Ago - September, 1962

Ramey Contractors of Methuen and L. C. Cyr Construction Co. of Lawrence submit identical bids of $3,900 for Davis street drainage extension.

State crews cutting the grass along Turnpike street clip off a hydrant and leave the Boston street, Gray street area without water for about three hours.

A new lunch program has been introduced at the Thomson school this year in which the students are provided milk and light confections to go with lunch brought from home.

Robert M. Wood of the M. T. Stevens Co., has been appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board of Public Works.

Applicants for the position of town accountant are being accepted by the selectmen who will interview and make an appointment by Oct. 1 to replace Miss Mary T. Finn who is retiring on that date.

In replacing horses, trucks and automobiles eliminated the need for 90 million acres of land to raise horse feed. That's more than twice the total area used for all U.S. roads and streets.

Named Merit Scholars

Students from all three of Andover's secondary schools, Andover High School and Abbot and Phillips Academies, have just been notified that they are semifinalists in the 1973 National Merit Scholarship Competition. They are now in the final running with college scholarships as the prize.

Patricia N. Henry of Andover High school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, 100 Elm St. was named as a semi-finalist.

Abbot Academy's semifinalists were Aina Maria Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Allen, 10 Duffon Road, Sarah S. Baydon, Sarah C. Cooper, Jennifer McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wells McLean, 53 Salem St., Molly H. Prescott and Kate S. Tomlinson.

Semifinalists from Phillips Academy are Geoffrey F. Aronow, William C. Brown, David S. Chapin, Crafford A. Harris, Edward R. Jonston II, Philip S. Kemp, Jr., Guy J. P. Nordenson, William R. Robinson, Joseph A. Smith, George R. Sumner and George O. VanHazinga.

Cash Balance Increases

A $50 million increase in Massachusetts' cash balance for August over July was noted today by State Treasurer Robert Q.

Crane in his latest monthly financial report.

August's cash balance, Treasurer Crane reported, was $98.3 million. In July the cash balance was $48.1 million.

The increase resulted when August receipts topped the month's disbursements by $50 million, with receipts amounting to $736.6 millions and disbursements totaling $686.4 millions.

Massachusetts bonded indebtedness, Treasurer Crane reported, was $1.413 billions on September 1, while a year ago it was $1.297 billion.

DON'T RUN OVER MY LITTLE GIRL!

"A few weeks ago I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father race toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw the look of despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

"Today my daughter, who is six years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is 'Scoot', watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

"Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, a girl with yellow curls, and about the boy across the aisle who makes faces; about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head; about the trees in the school yard, and the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

"We talked about a lot of things, some important, some unimportant.

"Now, as this is being written, she is sound asleep with her doll 'paddy' in her arms.

"When her doll gets broken, or her finger gets cut, or her head gets bumped I can fix them. But when she starts to cross the street, then Mr. & Mrs. Driver, she is in your hands.

"Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time. I have to work and pay for her home, her clothes and her education.

"So, Mr. & Mrs. Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and at intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars."

"Please don't run over my little girl."

Obituary...

GIUSEPPE PATANE

Giuseppe Patane, 86, 51 Memorial Circle, a former Lawrence resident, died Tuesday afternoon at Lawrence General Hospital following a short illness.

Mr. Patane was born in Acicaten, province of Catania, Italy,

May 4, 1886. He lived in this country for 60 years. He formerly worked in the combing room of the Arlington Mill. Mr. Patane attended St. Augustine's Church.

Among his survivors is a daughter, Carmela wife of George Milne, with whom he lived; a son, Louis Patane of Miami, Fla.; and three grandchildren.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday at 9 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church. Burial will be in Immaculate Conception Cemetery.

Calling hours are Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. and Friday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. at the M. A. Burke Memorial Funeral Home, 390 North Main St.

Memorial Service At Cemetery

The annual Memorial Service conducted by Temple Emanuel of Lawrence will be held this year on Sunday, Sept. 17, at 11 a.m. This service held in the Memorial Garden of the Temple Cemetery provides the opportunity for all to participate in a High Holiday Memorial Service.

Participating in this service in addition to the Temple Rabbi, Harry A. Roth will be Irving Shuman, the Temple Cantor, the members of the choir: Francis Fine, Mrs. William Fire, Mrs. Paul Pemsler and William Flavin; accompanied by Mrs. Joan Maynard at the organ.

Questions regarding this service can be answered by calling the Temple Office.

To Examine Speed Limit

The state department of public works will be asked to re-examine the speed limits on North Main street from Route 495 to Lowell street.

This was the decision of the board of selectmen Monday night after hearing a request for action of some sort with regard to safety standards.

Mrs. Eleanor Melucci appeared before the board and asked for some action, citing recent accidents and continued speed problems on the particular section of roadway.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin and Police Chief David L. Nicoll recommended that the state survey the area and report back to the town on their findings. The selectmen agreed.

Dr. Somers To Address Workshop

Dr. Leon Somers will be the guest speaker at the first of the Department of Recreation/Community Schools Civic Workshops on Sept. 20 at the High School.

Dr. Somers will be joined by Dr. Georges DeNapoli, Robert Lehman and Jane Cashman, all associated with the Psychological Center in Andover.

The topic to be considered will be "The family and mental health."

The Civic workshops are open to the public and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the large group meeting room at the High School.

For further information, call the Andover Recreation Department.

No. Reading Choral Group To Resume

On Tuesday, Sept. 26, the North Reading Choral Society, again under the leadership of Esther DeYoung, will meet in Putnam Hall of the Union Congregational Church in North Reading. Rehearsals are held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. with a coffee break to renew acquaintances and welcome new members.

The society has in its membership men and women of many varied professions and interests, all with the common bond of a love for performing good music. Randall Thompson's "The Nativity According to St. Luke," a musical drama in seven scenes, has been chosen for the Christmas performance. Singers are welcome in all voice ranges.

Bird Spinoff Dramatic

When a tropical storm churns along the New England coast the spin-off of birds can be dramatic.

Tropical Storm Carrie which ventilated and moistened Labor Day in parts of the region not only was dramatic but rather specific. She chose Cape Cod for her major dumping ground.

A birding party which included Dr. Winthrop W. Harrington, Jr., of Lincoln, recorded the following unexpected birds at First Encounter Beach in North Eastham:

Eight hundred greater shearwaters, one Cory's shearwater, one sooty shearwater, 15 Manx shearwaters, 300 Wilson's petrels, four fulmars, 50 Hudsonian godwits, 34 parasitic jaegers, five pomarine jaegers, one Sabine's gull, one Caspian tern, and five kittiwakes.

If that sounds like so much jargon, it may help you to know that all except the godwits are sea-going birds and that most of them seldom are seen near land in such numbers, if at all.

An analysis of the list hints at a basic difference in the ecological effect of a tropical storm compared to a full hurricane. Hurricane winds, of course, exceed 75 miles an hour. A tropical storm churns similar to a hurricane but keeps under 75 miles an hour.

If Carrie had reached hurricane velocity somewhere in the Greater Antilles, she would have delivered a sampling of tropical birds and dumped back into the north thousands of land birds that had migrated southward. A hurricane approaching as close as Carrie did, probably would have tossed birds all over New England.

But slow-twisting Carrie had to be satisfied with collecting birds from Georges Bank or other northern fishing areas and lifting them shoreward. In fact, her major thrust missed most of coastal as well as inland New England.

While 800 greater shearwaters is impressive when they hug the shore -- although not unusual over Georges Bank at this season -- the most unusual delivery to First Encounter Beach may be the 15 Manx shearwaters. Shearwaters, although quite different from gulls, look somewhat like gulls to the casual observer. The fact that they glide on rather stiff wings and skim above the water gives them their name.

The Manx shearwater is a European bird. Until recent years, it rarely was seen in U.S. waters. When E. H. Forbush completed the seabird section of his ornithological work in 1925, the Manx shearwater never had been recorded in New England waters. Ludlow Griscom said the first U.S. record for the Manx shearwater was a bird picked up dead on an Edgartown beach on Martha's Vineyard on Sept. 2, 1950.

Since 1950, the Manx shearwater population over offshore waters has slowly increased. Sometimes at this season, passengers on the Bluenose or Prince of Fundy may see 15 Manx shearwaters between Maine and Nova Scotia.

The fulmars also are unusual birds along the New England coast. Over the years, groups of fulmars have patrolled Georges Bank but until recent years they seldom were seen any nearer the coast.

Nature Photography

Autumn, with its display of colors, is a particularly appropriate time for outdoor photography. The Mass. Audubon Society's Ipswich River Nature Center and Wildlife Sanctuary is offering the popular course "Nature Photography," taught by Mr. Don Ilsley. The class will consist of several classroom sessions on topics such as lighting, composition, closeups and nature techniques. Slides will be shown and evaluated at each session; participants may bring their own slides for discussion. There will be a Saturday class field trip to practice the techniques discussed in class. Everyone must have his own camera and provide for his own film and development expenses.

The course starts Thursday, Sept. 21 from 8 to 9:30 p.m. Anyone interested in further information should call the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield.

Election

the computer or punch card system in use here for the past several years.

There are 4,127 Republicans and 3,827 Democrats registered in Andover and a total of 5,270 unenrolled.

Unenrolled voters may vote in the primary by obtaining a ballot of their choice at the polls. They may remove their party designation after the election results are complete by notifying the town clerk's office.

Cronin, who once served as an administrative aide to Congressman Morse, in being contested for the nomination by Mayor Ellen A. Sampson of Lowell, Rev. Armand J. Morrisette, also of Lowell and George P. Macheras of Lowell.

Polls have had Cronin in front in his quest for the nomination. On the Democrat side, there are ten candidates seeking the nomination.

Political observers see the battle on the Democrat ballot centering on three particular candidates, Rep. Anthony R. DiFrancia of Lawrence, Vietnam Veteran Against the War John Kerry and Lowell Rep. Paul J. Sheehy.

Other candidates include former Lawrence Mayor Daniel P. Kiley, Jr., Glenn M. Cooper, John J. Desmond, Helen Gilbride Droney, Frederick J. Finnegan, Robert B. Kennedy and Richard Williams, all from Lowell.

There are other contests in Tuesday's election on the state and county level.

Two representative districts in Andover have incumbents seeking renomination and re-election unopposed at this point. In the 14th Essex district, which includes Precinct three in Andover, Reps. Edward A. Grimley and Gerard A. Guilmette, both Democrats are unopposed, and Rep. James P. Hurrell of North Andover, whose district includes Precincts one, five and six in Andover is likewise unopposed.

In the 17th District, Rep. William Arvanitis, a Republican is unopposed in his bid for renomination. Three Lawrence men are seeking the nomination on the Democrat ballot which will face voters in precincts two and four. Robert T. Kelley, Henry McGuire and Atty. Arthur S. Sobil, are seeking the nomination.

County races hold attention for local candidates.

In the battle for nomination for Register of Deeds, John R. Williams of Dartmouth Road is seeking the berth against Atty. Thomas J. Burke of Lawrence, who is serving out the term and was appointed by the county commissioners, former Rep. John C. Bresnahan and Joseph L. Creeley.

Donald W. Gardner of Ballardvale Road is seeking the Democrat nomination for county commissioner in a field of seven with two to be nominated.

Gardner is facing incumbents Atty. Daniel Burke of Peabody and William A. Donovan of Lawrence, along with James C. Bradley of North Andover, Norman R. Bennett and Richard P. Mayor.

In another county race, Treasurer Thomas F. Duffy is being challenged by James M. Garvey of Lawrence and Anthony L. Neve of Lawrence.

There will be one voting location change in Andover. Voters in Precinct three will cast ballots at the Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium at the corner of Haverhill and Argyle streets, rather than at Sacred Heart school as formerly.

Station Variance Denied

The Zoning Board of Appeals has denied a request for a variance to allow construction of a filling station at 435 North Main Street, near the intersection of Route 495.

Kevin C. Sullivan of Tewksbury had petitioned the board at a hearing last Thursday for permission to erect a filling station at the location which is now residentially zoned and contains a dwelling.

At the hearing, abutters presented considerable objection to the proposal.

It was also noted that the petitioner had acquired the property only a short time before making application for the variance and had not definite plans to present to the board as to ingress or egress to the station, location of pumps or other fixtures.

The board in its decision, noted the proximity of the locus to Route 495, but felt that granting of the permit would constitute a derogation of the intent of the bylaws, in that the neighborhood is substantially residential in character.

The greatest altitude at which a bowling game was held took place 25,000 feet high, when Dick Weber played Sylvia Wene in Boeing 707 freighter.

school committee, recreation advisory committees and several other municipal appointive boards in recent years.

She has been active in the Andover League of Women Voters, having served as its president at one time.

As a FinCom member, Mrs. Cole will retire from her other municipal appointments.

Her appointment marks the first entrance into the all male bastion of the town's financial watchdogs.

Atty. Doherty, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. S. Doherty, 29 Juniper Road, is a cum laude graduate of Phillips Academy and Harvard University. In 1971 he received his Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from Boston College Law school where he was president of his class and a member of the Legal Aid.

He was discharged from the U.S. Army with the rank of Captain after serving in Vietnam where he was wounded three times and was the recipient of the Purple Heart.

Last week, District Attorney John P. S. Burke appointed Atty. Doherty as seventh assistant district attorney and he began his new duties immediately with assignment to a criminal session of Superior Court in Salem.

Harold T. Cookson, whose term also has expired, has been retained on the FinCom until after the October town meeting by the moderator. Cookson was retained Moderator Williams said, due to his expertise on matters pertaining particularly to the October session.

be far healthier to incorporate Abbot's student body and faculty, its special qualities and special experience educating girls, into Phillips, so as to have a significantly coeducational school from the start. He deplores the prospect of "going through that ghastly period of tokenism that most single sex schools must live through before they can become coeducational."

Abbot Principal Don Gordon, like Sizer, was already a serious proponent of coeducation before his appointment on Andover Hill.
Gordon says the terms of coeducation are crucial.

"Just putting boys and girls together in the same school doesn't make it true coeducation.
True coeducation must be carefully designed."

Sizer and Gordon's joint proposal is the result of explorations which their respective trustee chairmen directed them to make, concerning the feasibility of combining the two schools into a single coed school.

"Don Gordon and I have the same basic educational objective -- a significant school offering an academic education for a socially and economically diverse student body," Sizer told the TOWNSMAN. He mentioned Abbot's reputation for warmth, humanity and flexibility, and he sees convergence in the recent paths of the two schools, whose histories have been intertwined from the start.

Because of Phillips larger endowment and resources, Sizer reasons that the coed school would offer breadth and strength, and be able to offer them to a more diverse group of girls. The tuition of the coed school would be significantly lower than that of Abbot, in line with the PA projections and the scholarship funds far greater.

Sizer says that Phillips Academy has always symbolized high academic standards and the lowest possible tuition.

"Phillips Academy is one of the few schools left with a fighting chance to be a school of open access -- for poor as well as rich students. That's what the founders meant when they called it a 'free public school,' and it is what Phillips Academy means today when it calls itself an open access national school.
If there's a kid in Oklahoma who has applied and PA decides he should be here, then it means he can get here, even if he hasn't even the carfare from home, let alone the tuition. This would be just as true for girls."

Would a school of 1250, or even 950, later on, be too big to be personal?

No., say both Gordon and Sizer, not if Phillips Academy's new federal system of clusters works effectively. Each student at Phillips is now a permanent member of one of six clusters, or small schools within the academy. Here all his living, counseling, disciplinary and recreational arrangements are centered during his years at the school, except for academic classes and those other activities best handled at the wider academy level. Sizer and Gordon agree that the cluster system is a step toward gaining the advantage of a school half the size of Abbot within a large academy, with its advantages of size and resources.

As a historian, Sizer remarked, it is hard to see an ancient institution change its character fundamentally, as Abbot would, by being absorbed into Phillips to make a new coed school. "It would be the responsibility of Phillips Academy to see that this long tradition does not disappear."

The two schools have been closely related since Abbot Academy's conception. It was the Phillips Academy treasurer to whom Madame Sarah Abbot addressed her question -- what should she do with her estate?
"Found an academy in Andover for the education of young women," was Samuel Farrar's reply. Sizer notes that the first plot of land for Abbot, founded in 1828-9, was the gift of PA's retired headmaster, Mark Newman, and Miss Abbot herself was second cousin to Phillips Academy's principal founder, Samuel Phillips.

Change will most surely come to Phillips Academy too, through its combination with Abbot and coeducation. But this is nothing new, Sizer claims, since Phillips was two schools in one, at one point.

In the 1820's an English Department, which was really a normal school to train teachers, operated side by side with the "free public school," which was a Latin grammar school on the English model. Phillips has always adapted to the times, Sizer said, and in 1972, the difference between boys and girls has become less important than other considerations.

Andover's former selectman, Philip K. Allen has been a key
Abbot considerations of coeducation, and its period of coordination. Allen is both chairman of Abbot's board of trustees, and a member of the PA trustee board. Allen says that while his views are well known to both boards, he will remove himself from the actual decision process, and act merely as a moderator at the special Abbot trustee meeting, to hear the headmasters presentations, and the financial projections of administrators and outside experts. Any recommendations made to the board,
Allen said, will come from Abbot Trustee Melville Chapin's Coordinating Committee.

PA's Headmaster Sizer told the TOWNSMAN that at every junction in the discussions with Abbot Principal Don Gordon and Abbot Trustee chairman Allen, it has been obvious that the uppermost question in these men's minds has been "What is best for the education of girls?"

State Behind In Payments

The Finance Committee this week had to approve a transfer of $5,000 to the police paying account because the state is so far behind in its payments.

The revolving account is for overtime or off-duty work which members of the police or fire department may perform. Contractors pay the town directly for these services and the town in turn pays the personnel.

The accounting procedure was set up in recent years.

Town Accountant Wendell Matheson informed the FinCom that it is now necessary to request additional funds for the account since the account is under $100.

Back payments totalling almost $4,000 are due from the state for work performed by local police officers on such things as road work surveying, etc.

The men are due the money, but the account has reached the point where the payments can not be made.

The FinCom approved the transfer.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

"A Community Church"

25 - 33 Central Street, Andover

Sunday Services

8:00 A. M., 9:30 A. M., 10:30 A. M.

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

WHY EDUCATION?

Thoughtful parents know that many of the problems their children face cannot be answered by what is taught at school or learned at home. The church's responsibility is to create an environment where problems can be illuminated by the light of faith in a community of concern.

"Where will my child acquire the moral fiber to choose between compassion and self-interest?"

"How can we learn to defy the de-humanizing effects of technology?"

"How shall we match physical growth with inner strength and maturity to cope with drugs, sexual permissiveness, and material greed?"

"What equips men and women to form strong, constructive, and lasting relationships?"

"How can one make ready to conquer pain, frustration, or death?"

"What can I give my child that will enable him to face an uncertain world and to survive?"

Christ Church offers a professionally directed modern and comprehensive program of moral and religious training to children of the community from Pre-Kindergarten through High School. For information, call 475-0529, or send in the blank below.

A Heart Warning

The first days of fall, like the early days of spring, can spur the homeowner into a frenzy of unaccustomed physical activity which, warns the Northeast Chapter, Massachusetts Heart Association, gambles with the possibility of a heart attack.

The crisp days of autumn seem to demand that the painting be finished, the storm windows be put up, the attic be cleaned out since it's cool again, and 101 things indoors and outdoors be done -- all at the same time. Many active women and men do take these things in stride, the Heart Association notes. But for the man past middle age, who has been doing nothing more strenuous than watching baseball on TV, and whose smoking and eating habits have increased his risk, unusual high-intensity exercise can trigger a heart attack.

The first advice from the Heart Association is that no middle-aged person rush into unaccustomed activity without first checking his condition with his doctor and learning what his capacity is for work.

Secondly, one of the best defenses against heart attack when it strikes (and it does more than one million times each year) is knowing the warning signs and what to do about them. This alone, notes the Heart Association, may be enough to save a life by speeding help to a victim at the most critical time -- the first few hours after the attack. Since it is so important, all members of the family should know what the warning signs are and what actions to take immediately.

This is what you should know; the usual warning signs include:

- Prolonged, heavy pressure or squeezing pain in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone.
- Pain may spread to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.
- Pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating.
- Nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.

This is what you should do; act immediately:

- Sometimes these symptoms ease up and then return.
- Don't wait. Minutes count.

Call your doctor and describe your symptoms.

- If your doctor is not immediately available, get to a hospital emergency room at once.
- The decision to act should not be left to the patient alone. It is also the responsibility of the wife, husband, relative or friend.

HOME FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

Fires strike a half-million American homes every year. One way to keep your home from becoming part of these grim statistics is to equip it with portable fire extinguishers that will douse small fires before they become large ones.

Half of all home fires start in the living room or bedroom, so it's a good idea to have extinguishers close at hand there. Also, you can expect flammable grease or oil fires to start in the kitchen and garage, so make sure you have the special type that fights grease and oil fires there.

Any unit you buy should be light enough to be easily handled by most members of the family. When shopping be sure that there is the Underwriters Laboratories (U-L) or

Innovative Schools Get Headquarters

A Network of Innovative Schools has been established with headquarters in Merrimac, to link 90-100 Massachusetts public and private schools to resources to help them improve education through innovation. The N.I.S. has federal support from Title III funds.

Peter Stapleton of Andover, assistant headmaster of Abbot Academy, is one of ten associates of the Network, which is directed by Dr. David P. Crandall.

In an Associate School Program, the Network gives in-depth service to a limited number of member schools. Abbot Academy is one of these eight public and private schools whose administration and staff are committed to organizational self-renewal with the help of the Network.

Abbot faculty and staff participated in a Network workshop at their school Sept. 6 and 7. The workshop covered identification of organizational needs, analysis of concepts and group approaches to problems.

Stapleton, who conducted the workshop, will be leading a seminar on the approaches of the Network of Innovative Schools at the annual meeting of the National Association of Independent Schools this winter.

Other schools enrolled in the Associate School Program are the Burlington Middle School, Eaglebrook School, Elizabeth Hastings Junior High School in Fairhaven, Ipswich Junior High School, Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical High School, St. Gregory's Grammar School and St. Gregory's High School in Dorchester.

Meeting To Continue October 16

If the October 2 town meeting does not complete action on the warrant that night, the session will be adjourned for two weeks.

The following Monday night, Oct. 9, is being observed as the Columbus Day holiday and thus no business may be transacted on that day.

The selectmen have agreed that the session be moved to Oct. 16, should more than one session be necessary and it would appear that such will be the case.

Industry

In response to the request of the industrial developers, the selectmen this week issued the following statement:

At the Annual Town Meeting on March 9, 1968, the voters present approved the appropriation of $1,581,000 for the purpose of providing sewer connections to the West Andover Industrial Area, such funds to be spent only when justified by appropriate industrial development and as approved by the Selectmen and the Finance Committee.

At the present time a developer is negotiating with a prospective client for the possible erection of a plant in that area.

The Board of Selectmen acknowledges the responsibilities of the orderly development of that area in a manner that will be beneficial to the Town; and if the present owner of a large portion of that industrial land presents a proposition which in our opinion would be desirable and economically prudent, we would proceed in accordance with Article 24 as voted on March 9, 1968, or any other appropriate route; and if additional funds are necessary to meet increased costs, we would provide the necessary Article in the Warrant of the next Town Meeting and recommend its approval by the townspeople.

Yom Kippur Services At Temple

From sundown Sept. 17, until sundown the following day, Reform, Conservative and Orthodox Jews throughout the world will observe Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, the most sacred and solemn of the ancient Hebrew holidays. The observance of Yom Kippur is one which has remained unbroken for over 2,000 years.

Yom Kippur is universally observed by all branches of Judaism by fasting from sundown to sundown, by prayer and by a searching re-appraisal of the individual's behaviour, in his relationship to his fellow man, and to his God. It is the culmination of ten days of intense self-examination, during which the individual Jew examines the year just past, atones for his shortcomings in relation to God and man, and expresses his hopes for strength and regeneration for the year to come.

The opening liturgy, sung during Yom Kippur Eve, is called the "Kol Nidre," a prayer written in the seventh-eighth century. The melody which accompanies it, one of the most haunting and beautiful of all liturgical works, has its origin in the music of medieval Germany. The "Kol Nidre" (which means "all vows") is a plea for God's forgiveness of human fallibility should man fail to keep the promises made to God.

The Yom Kippur service continues throughout the day. A section of the Torah read on this day is taken from the Biblical Book of Deuteronomy: "See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil... therefore, choose life, that thou mayst live..." Toward the end of the service, there is a special prayer of mourning for the dead.

As the sun sets, the holiday ends with a final blast from the Shofar, the ram's horn, used for thousands of years in the observance of Rosh Hashanah (The Jewish New Year) and Yom Kippur. The significance of Yom Kippur for the Jewish people is profound. It reflects an emphasis upon the nature of man as a responsible being, capable of change and redemption through his own acts, and never irrevocably lost. By asking forgiveness of God, and of those he has wronged, man can change his life and the world around him.

In the Union Prayer Book, used in the Reform Jewish service, and the following passage is characteristic of the prayers traditionally offered during Yom Kippur.

"Our God and God of our fathers, pardon our transgressions on this day of Atonement; remove our guilt, and blot out our iniquities, as Thou hast promised: I, even I, blot out thine iniquities for My sake, and thy sins will I remember no more. I have made thy sins to vanish like a cloud, and thy transgressions like a mist; return to Me, for I have redeemed thee. On this day shall ye be forgiven and cleansed from all your sins; before God ye shall be pure..."

At Temple Emanuel, Rabbi Harry A. Roth will conduct services assisted by Cantor Irving Shuman and the Temple Emanuel Choir, with Mrs. Joan Maynard at the organ.

The following is the complete schedule of services for Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur.

Kol Nidre, Sunday, 7 p.m.; Yom Kippur Monday: Shachris, 9 a.m.; Torah, 10 a.m.; Mincha, 4 p.m.; Neilah, 5 p.m.; Sounding of Shofar, 6 p.m.

Annual cemetery memorial service, Sunday at 11 a.m.

Fall Term Program At Institute

The International Institute's Foreign Language Program will begin its Fall Term the week of Sept. 24 with adult classes offered in English, Spanish, German, French and Chinese.

Beginning, intermediate and advanced English classes for the foreign born are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. A new class in English Idioms and Slang for advanced students will be held Mondays 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Three beginning level Spanish classes are planned. A new intensive audio-lingual course designed to cover two years of Spanish in 36 weeks and to meet the needs of local professional, corporate and government personnel will meet Mondays and Thursdays from 4 - 5:30 p.m. Also offered are once a week beginning classes on Thursdays, 7:30 p.m., and on Mondays at the YWCA from 7:30 - 9 p.m.

Basic conversation courses in German, French and Italian are scheduled for Wednesday evenings from 7:30 - 9 p.m.

Modern Chinese is being offered for the first time and will emphasize elementary grammar, vocabulary, conversation and character writing. The course will be given at Memorial Hall Library in Andover on Thursdays from 7:30 - 9 p.m.

All of the International Institute Foreign Language Program courses are taught by professional language teachers or native speakers experienced in teaching. The Institute uses up-to-date printed and audio-visual materials for instruction. Each class is limited to twelve students. Certificates of study are awarded each year at the end of the Spring Term to those students who have participated in the year long program.

Additional course information and registration forms may be obtained from the International Institute, 430 North Canal St., Lawrence. The Institute is a member agency of the Merrimack Valley United Fund and is affiliated with the American Council for Nationalities Service in New York City.

Warrant Hearing

The Finance Committee has scheduled a public hearing for Tuesday night, Sept. 19 at 7:30 in Memorial Hall Library to allow the giving of information relative to articles appearing in the Oct. 2 town meeting warrant.

The FinCom will be receiving information from the public relative to warrant articles and particularly those who have private articles for consideration.

Environment

Two speakers from Boston will represent their respective firms and describe their services recently purchased by Memorial Hall Library as essential reference tools for persons concerned with the quality of the environment. Mr. Burt Johns is the New England Supervisor for the Bureau of National Affairs. This company puts out the Environmental Reporter, an 11 volume set containing a considerable amount of information about the states and federal government in respect to developments in air and water pollution, solid waste and land use. Mr. Johns will describe the scope and the usefulness of the Environmental Reporter. Mr. John Putnam is director of Boston Environment, Inc. He and his group of volunteers concentrate on state and local developments within Massachusetts pertaining to the environment. They publish Environmental Action and Environmental Townsman, and they provide a news clipping service. The library subscribes to all of these services, and Mr. Putnam will explain the importance of these tools to the citizens of Andover. The meeting is open to the public. It begins at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, Sept. 19. Coffee will be served at 9:30.

Films

The first film of the new season for Senior Citizens will be shown at the Baptist Church on Sept. 21 at 2 p.m. The film will be The World of Jacques Jean Cousteau.

New England Telephone customers in the Lawrence area are receiving their 1972 Lawrence telephone directories. Local telephone manager Charles Papalia said 95,000 copies of the directory will be delivered by Sept. 28 to customers in the Andover, Lawrence and Salem, N.H., areas.

The color photograph on the new book's cover is a snow scene of the Concord River, with Canadian geese in the foreground. Special features of the directory include emergency numbers for fire and police listed on the inside front cover, and space for jotting down frequently called numbers on the inside back cover.

West Parish Nursery Resumes

Classes at West Parish Nursery School have resumed this week with an enrollment of 24 pupils.

Mrs. Cora Levick is the director with Mrs. Audrey Desroches as her assistant.

The program will run from September to June with classes held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Featured during the year will be a series of field trips.

Enrolled in the class are: Gilbert Barrett, III, Theodore Beale, Pietro Belluschi, Joseph Bowab, Holly Burnett, Sara Corbett, David Cox, David Desmarais, David Felton, Todd French, Traci Foreman, Stephanie Haveles, Katherine Holmes, Kristin Jones, Gregory Najjar, Dorothy Nelson, Dawn O'Brien, Francis Odum, Jeffrey Parker, Susan Richmond, Kristen Robinson, Richard Starkweather, Jennifer Starr and Lydia Wise.

Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pinafore" was once performed on a real ship floating in a gigantic tank of water in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Laws, notice is hereby given that the ANDOVER PLANNING BOARD will hold a public hearing, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25th, 1972 at 8:00 P.M., PLANNING BOARD OFFICE, TOWN HALL, 2nd FLOOR for the consideration of the following amendments to the Zoning Bylaw and Districts:

To see if the Town will vote to make the following changes to the Zoning Bylaw, (Article VIII): AMEND Section I. (Purpose) by adding the following new Paragraph a.:

a. The purpose of the flood plain area is to control land use encroachments and development in areas unsuited for intended purposes because of flood hazards; to protect human life and health; to minimize public and private property damage; to protect, preserve and maintain the water table; to assure the continuation of the natural flow pattern of the water course(s); to minimize surface and ground-water pollution which will affect human, animal, or plant life; and to provide for public awareness of the flooding potential.

AMEND Section II (Definitions) by adding the following new definitions:

23. Flood. An overflow of lands not normally covered by water and that are used or usable by man. Floods have two essential characteristics: the inundation of land is temporary; and the land is adjacent to and inundated by overflow from a river, stream, ocean, lake, or other body of standing water.

24. Flood Plain. The areas adjoining a river, stream, watercourse, ocean, lake, or other body of standing water that have been or may be covered by flood-water.

25. Intermediate Regional Flood. A flood having an average frequency of occurrence in the order of once in 100 years although the flood may occur in any year, i.e., all the flood plain area has a one percent (1%) chance of being flooded each year while some portion of it may be flooded every year.

AMEND Section III, (Establishment of Districts) by adding the following new Paragraph E. (Flood Plain Area Delineation): E. Flood Plain Area Delineation

The Flood Plain Area, designed approximately on Property Maps of Andover, Mass. (Zoning - Assessors' Maps) on public display in the Planning Board Office, is subject to controls on development. The Flood Plain Area is derived from the maps within the Corps of Engineers report, Flood Plain Information, prepared for Lawrence, Methuen, Andover and North Andover - March, 1972. The Flood Plain Area shown on the Property Maps coincides with the Intermediate Regional Flood (IRF) delineation on the Corps of Engineers Maps.

AMEND Section IV.A. (Use Regulations - Permitted Uses) by adding a new Paragraph #5 as follows:

5. in Flood Plain Area, - such areas are subject to control in all zoning districts of the Town of Andover. In the flood plain areas those uses consistent with flood plain management, (i.e. subject to preventive measures for reducing flood damage), are permitted only if consistent with the permitted uses of the zoning district in which the flood plain area is located and only if all conditions for a special permit are fulfilled. (See Section VI.H.).

Existing structures and uses not consistent with proper flood plain management are granted a non-conforming status and are subject to Zoning Bylaw, Section VII, Non-Conformance.

AMEND Section IV. (Use Regulations) by adding the following new Paragraph under NOTE:

NOTE: All uses listed below are subject to the special permit requirements of flood plain areas where applicable.

AMEND Section VI. (Other Requirements) by adding the following new Paragraph H.:

H. Flood Plain Area
In granting a special permit the Board of Appeals shall be satisfied that the conditions set forth in Section VIII B.2 as well as the following conditions are met:

1. The Board of Appeals shall be satisfied that the proposed structure or use will not be contrary to the purposes of flood plain area management or the permitted uses in the Zoning District in which the flood plain area is located.

2. The Board of Appeals shall ascertain that the request has been referred to the Planning Board, the Board of Health, the Conservation Commission (and the Industrial Commission when in an industrial zone) and reported upon by all three (four) Boards within 15 days after the Public Hearing. Plans for a proposed site development should include existing and proposed buildings, original and final grade elevations, showing contours at 1' elevations with the L.R.F. line plotted on these contours, and the methods of grading, filling and drainage.

3. Geographic location map of proposed building indicating security of driveway or walkway access to it during flooding must be provided.

4. Foundation elevations are related to the Intermediate Regional Flood level at proposed building (s) and security of foundation.

dations during flooding, including assurance that foundations would not be undermined and that the proposed building would not be floated-off, swept-away, nor battered-off during flooding, must be provided.

5. Disposal of sewage from the proposed building, containment of sewage during flooding, and the safety of water, sewage, gas, electric and fuel utilities from breaking, leaking, short-circuiting, grounding, igniting, electrocution or other dangers during flooding must be adequately handled.

6. Guidelines for granting permission for new construction or substantial improvement of the residential and non-residential structures can be found in the Federal Register 36 F.R. 18175-86 September 10, 1971 (see especially Part 1910 - Criteria for Land Management and Use, Section 1910.3 Required Land Use and Control Measures for Flood-prone Areas).

Nature's Colors

Autumn is a time of brilliant colors: the strong blue of clear skies, yellow goldenrod, and scarlet, deep purple and orange leaves. Many of our common native plants can be used as a source of color for cloth, yarn or thread. The colors extracted from plants often have a softer, more appealing tone to them than the colors of synthetic dyes.

The Mass. Audubon Society's Ipswich River Nature Center and Wildlife Sanctuary is sponsoring a course "Dyeing with Native Plants," taught by Mrs. Louise Norton of the Plymouth Antiquarian Society's Harlow House. The class will begin on Thursday, Sept. 21 from 1 to 3 p.m. Each participant will take home a sample of yarn, suitable for crewel or embroidery work, for each color made in class. Anyone interested in further information should call the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield (887-2241).

Bicycle Safety Problems

"It's the thing to do" . . . and adults are rediscovering a sport that never lost its popularity with youngsters - bicycling.

But bicycling can also create safety problems, says the Institute for Safer Living.

Approximately 880 bicyclists are likely to be killed this year in bicycle-automobile accidents, according to the National Safety Council. Such fatalities have risen steadily in recent years, from 490 in 1961 to 850 last year. An estimated 130 additional bicycle-related deaths are predicted.

The Institute estimates 1,040, 000 bicycle-related injuries occur annually.

More than 75 million people ride bicycles now, compared with 55 million in the late 1960s.

The Institute urges adherence to these common sense safety precautions to help eliminate many bicycle accidents.

Learn to ride well - practice in a safe area away from traffic.
Choose the correct bicycle size.

Bicycles are intended for use on lightly-traveled roads.

Bicycles are prohibited on many highways and expressways.

Obey all traffic rules and regulations: at lights, stop signs, intersections, and one-way streets.

Bicyclists must ride single file on roadways.

Only one person on a bicycle (except tandems) - no riders.

Bicyclists must not "hook" rides on other moving vehicles.

Every bicycle must have a bell or horn and a brake or brakes in good condition.

For after dark use, bicycles must have a reflector or red tail light that is visible from 300 feet and a front headlamp that is visible from 500 feet.

Always hand signal before turning.

Ride as closely to the right hand edge of the road as possible and always ride with the flow of traffic.

Don't carry anything that would prevent at least one hand from being on the handlebars at all times.

Leave stunt riding and racing for open areas free of traffic.

In most communities, bicycles must be registered and display license plates. Keep a copy of the bicycle serial number at home.

followed by a visit to Mayflower II at Plymouth.

The last leg of the 120-mile tour includes visits to the Whaling Museum at New Bedford and the U.S.S. Massachusetts of World War II fame in Battleship Cove, Fall River.

Education Courses Available

Nearly six thousand courses are available to adults in the Greater Boston area, according to the catalog published by the Educational Exchange of Greater Boston, 17 Dunster St., Cambridge. This is the 50th Annual Edition of the unique directory, Educational Opportunities of Greater Boston, which has steered tens of thousands of men and women to reliable schools and courses, through the years. A remarkable variety of courses, ranging from adult basic education, to the arts, business, languages, sciences, trades, homemaking, social studies, engineering, etc. are listed in the catalog.

The Educational Exchange of Greater Boston is an unique social agency founded in 1891 by two ministers who were associated with Harvard University.
Since 1923 it has served as a clearing house in adult education, and besides publishing the annual catalog of educational opportunities, it provides free educational information and counselling for men and women.

Mr. Henry D. Winslow is President of the Exchange. Zelda Lions is Executive Director.

Steel is rapidly becoming a major force in the construction of today's houses. Long recognized as a quality material in high rise construction, steel has earned the approval of builders and home owners alike. It is cropping up in some new places (such as siding) and is seen more and more throughout the house in an increasingly wide variety of uses such as: structural framing, doors, windows, floor joists, kitchen cabinets and even furniture.

Manufacturers are making use of pre-formed and finished steel shipped directly from the steel mills. This has reduced manufacturing costs to such an extent that steel is at least competitive and in many cases less expensive than other materials.

Anderson - Urquhart

South Church in Andover was the setting for the September 2nd marriage of Cathy Copeland Urquhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Urquhart of Andover and Eric Henry Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Anderson, also of Andover.

The bride's sister, Mrs. William Gower was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Susan Carter of Surrey, Maine and Christine Anderson, sister of the bridegroom. Thor Gower, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Kevin Fellows of Portsmouth, N.H. served as best man, and the ushers were Mark Pearson of Athens, Maine, Kurt Anderson, brother of the bridegroom, and J. Duncan Urquhart, brother of the bride.

The bride is a senior at the Peter Bent Brigham School of Nursing.

Her husband was graduated from the University of Maine School of Forestry. He is associated with the Chas. T. Main Co., Boston.

Gardeners Awarded Fourth Prize

The Andover Garden Club received the Fourth Prize in Horticulture's 39th Annual Garden Club Yearbook Contest for 1971-72. The awards are made by a team of outside judges based on a scale of 100 points. The most important category is civic involvement. Outstanding in this respect was the environmental replenishing program through which they increased the tree planting on municipal properties and streets and parks.

The Club receives $15 and a year's subscription of Horticulture.

Yearbooks for the 1972-73 Contest are now being accepted.

Horticulture magazine is published by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, a non-profit educational organization dedicated to the advancement of gardening in America for over 140 years.

Fashion Show Benefit

Friends of the American Cancer Society met again this week for the final preparation for the first annual luncheon - fashion show which is to be presented on Oct. 3, at the Sheraton Rolling Green Motor Inn in Andover.

A Newbury Street, Boston, couturier, will show his exciting fall collection. The young designer creates clean, classic lines and is noted for his dramatic use of color. Flandaca narrates his own fashion show, and the presentation is regarded as both unique and delightful.

Tickets for the luncheon - fashion show are now available and may be obtained by contacting Mrs. John H. Costello, Jr. or Mrs. George B. Leahy of Lowell, and Mrs. Burton Shaker or Mrs. Allen W. Tarro of Andover. All proceeds for this affair will be donated to the Merrimack Valley American Cancer Society.

Autumn Is Bulb Time

While Fall is on the horizon, now is the time to think of Spring, according to the Mass. Horticultural Society.

"Autumn is a time for looking ahead," said Carlton B. Lees, executive director of the Horticultural Society, "and the very cheerfulness of a spring garden depends on a person's planning in the Fall."

According to the society, now is the season for the homegardener to plant bulbs and Spring flowering shrubs, including daffodils, tulips, grape hyacinths, snowdrops, scillas and crocus.

By smart planning, the homeowner can have bright flowering plants blooming from when the snow first starts to melt all the way through the spring season.

Snowdrops are among the first bulbs to bloom, having gotten their name because they often come up through the snow, and then the crocus, tulips and daffodils will bloom in succession.

There are also three different types of tulips which bloom in early, mid and late season, and with the proper planting of these and other bulbs, the homegardener can guarantee himself a succession of blooms throughout the spring.

Cratty - Oldaker

Mrs. Barry V. Cratty

At 2 p.m. on Aug. 19 in South Church, Andover, Miss Janice Gail Oldaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Oldaker, 112 Wild Rose Drive, Andover, became the bride of Barry Vaughn Cratty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Cratty, 139 Chestnut Street, also of Andover.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full gown of voile, that featured alencon lace and puckered bodice and a ruffled skirt. She wore a picture hat with layers of lace and illusion veiling streamers and she carried a cascading bouquet of white daisies.

Miss Carol Oldaker was maid of honor for her sister, and Miss Susan Cox and Miss Debbie Merkel, both of Andover, and Miss Patricia Cavanaugh of Springfield, were bridesmaids. Miss Cynthia Cratty, sister of the bridegroom, served as flower girl.

William Cratty, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushering guests were Steven Jackson, Robert McKinnon, James McCarron, all of Andover, and David Oldaker, brother of the bride was a junior usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Oldaker wore an aqua gown with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Cratty wore a gown of green with multi-colored print and a corsage of white orchids also.

Following a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for Quebec City and Montreal.

The bride is a sophomore at Lowell State College and the bridegroom is a junior at Lowell Technological Institute.

Miss Parson Is Bride Of Mr. Heister

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Perkins Parson of Hidden Road, Andover, announce the marriage of their daughter Hope Fessenden Parson to Mr. Karl Bernard Heister of Winthrop, N.Y. on Wednesday, August 23.

The 4:30 Episcopal ceremony and the reception were held in the garden of the bride's family. The service was performed by the Rev. Raymond A. Nelson, headmaster of Pike School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white cotton Mexican wedding dress with lace trim on the high collar and similar lace inserts in the long sleeves. Her only attendant was her youngest sister, Miss Esther M. Parson who wore a long gray and white striped pinafore style dress. Both the bride and her sister carried bouquets of miniature carnations, bachelor buttons, marguerites and stephanotis.

The best man was Mr. Robert Crapeau of Peru, N.Y. The bride was graduated from Abbot Academy, attended Lake Erie College and received her degree from Boston University.

Mr. Heister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heister, also of Winthrop, was graduated from Mt. Hermon School and Colgate University in 1960.

The couple will live in Denver Colorado.

Observes Jubilee

Rev. William J. Murray, O.S.A., Vice-President for Student Affairs and Prior of the Augustinian community at Merrimack College, celebrated the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood with a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, Sept. 10 at 1 p.m. in the Collegiate Church of Christ The Teacher on the North Andover campus. Following Fr. Murray's Mass, there was a reception and dinner in Tagastan Hall, the Student Union Building at Merrimack College.

Originally from Brooklyn and Staten Island, N.Y., Fr. Murray graduated from Augustinian Academy on Staten Island, N.Y. in 1939. After entering the Augustinian Order, he received his B.A. degree in Philosophy from Villanova University in 1944. He was ordained to the Priesthood in the Augustinian Order in Washington, D.C. in 1947. Besides his priestly studies at Augustinian College in Washington, D.C., Fr. Murray also pursued graduate studies in Physics at Catholic University.

Fr. Murray's first assignment was in San Diego, California where he taught at St. Augustine's High School from 1949 to 1954. He was then assigned to Msgr. Bonner High School in Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania. While he was a teacher at Msgr. Bonner High School, Fr. Murray received an M.A. degree in Guidance and Counseling from Villanova University in 1957.

In 1959, Fr. Murray was transferred to Merrimack College. After serving as Director of Guidance for two years, Fr. Murray was appointed Dean of Men in 1961 and was subsequently appointed Vice-President of Student Affairs in 1971. In that same year, Fr. Murray was also appointed Prior of the Augustinian Community at Merrimack College.

Fr. Murray is a member of the American Personnel and Guidance Association, the American College Personnel Association, and the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

Fr. Murray is the son of Mrs. Sarah E. Murray and the late Mr. William J. Murray. His mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Murray, currently resides in North Andover.

Cronin Says Must Curb Inflation

Inflation must be curbed to help battle the "economic wars" of the next decade, Congressional Candidate Paul Cronin has urged as he began his last week of campaigning prior to the September primary.

Cronin, former chief assistant to Congressman F. Bradford Morse, also urged all voters to cast ballots next week.

"If we want to get proper representation in Congress," said Cronin, "then we must vote to sent the best man possible to Washington." He added, "I think I am that man."

Cronin has scheduled a heavy schedule of personal appearances the next week at a number of coffees, candidate nights and social and civic functions.

He has campaigned in each of the Fifth District's 24 cities and towns making his views known on various issues. This past week he has turned to the problem of inflation.

"One of the major issues of the next decade," said Cronin, "will be in the area of world economic competition."

"Inflation must be cured because the wars in the next 10 years will be 'economic wars' with other nations of the world. "The easiest way for us to defeat ourselves in these wars is through a high rate of inflation that not only hurts our competition with other nations of the world, but also hurts those people among us who are on fixed income, such as the elderly and the retired.

"Inflation robs the wage earner of his raises every year and it robs the housewife in her weekly budget.

"To cure inflation has got to be a major goal," Cronin stressed. "Part of the solution is to curb the excess governmental expenditures at every level that really feed the flames of inflation."

"Expenditures can also be cut," said Cronin, "through the restructuring of government. We must see to it that the level of government that can perform a job most efficiently is that level of government that does that job."

Auker Elected New Chairman

Manufacturing executive Elden L. Auker has been unanimously elected Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Associated Industries of Massachusetts to fill the unexpired term of the late Harry N. Snook of North Andover who died last month. The election was held at a meeting of the AIM Board of Directors.

Auker, a former major league pitcher and now president of Bay State Abrasives Division of Dresser Industries Inc. of Westboro, had only stepped down in April from AIM's top elective office, after serving some 30 months. He will continue as the interim chairman until next spring when the association will hold its annual meeting.

One of the state's best known industrialists, who proved also to be one of AIM's most popular spokesmen, Auker lives in Shrewsbury.

Named Notary

Atty. John P. Axelrod, 27 Alden Road, has been appointed as a Notary Public, State Secretary John F. X. Davoren has announced. Confirmation of the new appointee was made here at a meeting of the Executive Council following submission of the nomination by the Governor.

The term of the Andover Notary Public will expire in seven years.

BUSINESS PROFILES

Great Fashion Buys At Boutique Hide-A-Way

Now you can get everything for today's woman - the latest fashions, wigs, cosmetics, etc. at 30, 40, up to 50% off. Drive down to the Boutique Hide-A-Way, at 291 Main Street, North Reading, across from Temple Oil.

Because of their low overhead and their practice of buying at auction, Joseph and Beverly Viveiros can offer you unusual top name brand clothing and accessories at strictly "on sale" prices all the time at Boutique Hide-A-Way. There is always plenty of parking space and lay away service is available on all items.

New items for fall and winter are arriving daily. Be sure to see the new T. J. Hugs, the pants with the fit so close it's patented, now available in wonderful washable sweater knits. Exciting new long skirts for at-home and on-the-town are being shown in a multitude of styles and fabrics. And you may choose from a beautiful variety of polyester double knit pant suits, all completely washable, of course.

Boutique Hide-A-Way features the top names you will recognize.
They have John Meyer clothes, in the latest styles, at sale prices.
Also Van Heusen skirts, Seaton Hall sweaters, Garland and Brattle Square skirts. You'll see famous Diahanna hosiery, Penny Rich and other lingerie; Mink Oil products, Koskot Kosmetics, elegant wigs and the latest in jewelry fashions.

There's no rush at Boutique Hide-A-Way, no waiting for dressing rooms. Drive down and pick up a wardrobe of sweaters and blouses for the back-to-school crowd. As an added feature, Boutique Hide-A-Way has famous name men's slacks and shirts, also at sale prices.

Look for the sign and the new building, back from the street.
Boutique Hide-A-Way is open daily from 10 A.M. to 9 P.M.
Telephone 664-5556.

Painting

My policy is to offer you: Unexcelled workmanship incorporating your ideas and suggestions if you wish - and at HONEST PRICES.

Your job will be given expert attention - all labor either personally performed or supervised by me at all times rather than by help with questionable skills.

As I believe in QUALITY rather than quantity, time limits the amount of work accepted. Please call soon - the busy season ahead has already begun.

Q. Selling a home? What is M.L.S. (Multiple Listing Service)?

A. When you are selling your home Your Realtor will make a thorough listing of your property on the uniform listing contract and arrange to have your property carefully photographed.

Now your property will get top service and proper exposure. Copies of the listing and photograph are printed and distributed to all members of M.L.S.
(approx. 78 members in Greater Lawrence). The listing will have been carefully prepared so that REALTORS will be able to show exactly what your home has to offer for prospective buyers.

You will deal with only one REALTOR. He will screen prospects and make appointments and you only pay one fee for professional service.

If you have any questions regarding listing your home with a member of M.L.S., please call us.

OLYMPIAN. Bill Davis, 11-year-old North Andover Special Olympics star displays some of the medals he has won this year in competition at the state level and at the Special Olympics held nationally in California recently.

A Top Olympian

Billy Davis is an 11-year-old Olympic Champion.

The young man, a student at Franklin school in North Andover, has captured medals in special Olympics competition in the state and national level.

The youngster competed locally last spring in the district Special Olympics held in Andover and gained a state berth to the national competition by winning a gold and bronze medal in the 300 yard dash.

Davis was the first competitor from Massachusetts to win a medal in the national Olympics in California, gaining a gold in the 300 yard run and a bronze medal as well.

Billy was one of several competitors from the Essex County area who went to California as part of the state representation. All performed very well, and some attained medals.

In the competition, under a banner which read, "Let me win, but if I cannot let me be brave in the attempt," the group under the direction of Joe Cleary of North Andover, amasses a total of seven medals, one swimming the remainder in track and field events.

Another North Andover winner was Mark McLain.

Sandra Theberge from Andover was third place winner in the 25 yard backstroke event.

Cleary, who is directing the special olympics program in this area, reports that the co-operation he received from parents, volunteers and friends was exceptional, particularly those who assisted in the California trip.

Plans are now underway for the 1973 competition, the regional finals are tentatively scheduled for North Andover.
